Reluctant Dora to head village's birthday party

A 95-YEAR-OLD woman is to become the star of a Cannock Chase village's 150th birthday celebrations, albeit reluctantly.

Nonagenarian Dora Richards has lived in Bridgtown for most of her long life and her enthusiastic work with many village clubs and societies make her a recognisable face to most Bridgtown residents.

Bridgtown & District Local History Society plans to mark the parish becoming 150 years old on October 16 after recently discovering records of when the village formed.

Society chairman Tony Pearson said he could think of no-one better to spearhead the celebrations – even though she didn't crave any attention.

"From the record we've got we're 150 years old," Mr Pearson said. "We decided to celebrate the Bridgtown residents who've achieved great things but they were mostly men.

"So we looked around and Dora was a perfect example of Bridgtown females."

Dora, a history society member, has also been involved with Bethel Methodist Church since she was just four years old.

"For the past 30 years, every Saturday morning, the church has a children's club and Dora is there every single week," Mr Pearson added.

"She's absolutely amazing. She's a remarkable person but doesn't want any fuss with the celebrations, which is typical of her.

"Dora isn't the type to want to be on the front page but the front page always comes to her."

Dedicated

As part of the celebrations, which take place at Bridgtown Social Club, an area called Dora's Stage will be dedicated to her.

It will be the society's third annual exhibition. Mr Pearson said: "We normally get 500 or 600 people but this year is a special celebration. The theme is families of Bridgtown and every street in the village will be highlighted."

Photographs, memorabilia and letters are still needed for the event.

For details visit www.bridgtownhistory.co.uk or call Mr Pearson on 01543 255235.

ALDI STORE GO-AHEAD

Police close off the M6 Toll following Tuesday's incident

Traffic builds up after the road is closed after the man fell from the bridge

Man 'critical' after Toll bridge fall

A MAN in his 60s was critically ill in hospital after falling about 18ft from a road bridge on to the M6 Toll.

The road was closed in both directions after the incident between junctions T7 at Churchbridge and T6 at Brownhills on Tuesday afternoon.

The injured man was flown to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham with chest, head and leg injuries described as life threatening following the incident. His condition yesterday morning (Wednesday) remained "critical." Faye Casey, spokesman for Staffordshire Police, said: "Police were called to the Washbrook Road bridge over the M6 Toll. A man had fallen from the bridge onto the hard shoulder of the M6 Toll."

Police said the incident was not being treated as suspicious.

The toll road was closed southbound and the northbound carriageway was also closed to allow the Midlands Air Ambulance to land.

The incident happened at 1.10pm and the M6 Toll re-opened at 2.30pm.

CAMPAIGNERS have failed in their attempt to have a supermarket chain's bid to build a new store in Chasetown rejected.

Lichfield District Council this week approved plans for Aldi to demolish the former Bridge Cross Working Men's Club, on Bridge Cross Road, and replace it with an 800sq ft store and 67-space car park.

This was despite objections from residents – 200 of whom signed a petition opposing the plans – and Burntwood town councillors.

Concerns raised included the number of road accidents in Milestone Way, which will house the entrance and exit to the supermarket, as the road saw 15 incidents and one fatality between 2005 and 2010.

Petition

Residents on High Street also fear that a 20ft wall, due to be erected at the bottom of their back gardens, would make the area an eyesore.

Glenys Brevitt, whose husband Barry launched the petition, said she and fellow campaigners left the meeting very disappointed.

"The meeting was a bit of a shambles and basically it's going to go ahead regardless of what local residents think," Mrs Brevitt said.

"The council brought up the fact they want Burntwood town centre to be developed but we think it's in the wrong place. It's going to be in a residential area on a busy road and there are a lot of negative aspects to the plans.

"The entrance to the working men's club is very poor and is too close to the island, so a lot of traffic congestion will be caused at Sankey's Corner."

Burntwood Town councillor Stephen Taylor, who along with Councillor Keith Willis-Croft raised objections at the planning meeting, said his concerns had not been addressed.

"Burntwood Town Council agreed in principle with the project and the application," Councillor Taylor said.

"However there were concerns addressed with access and egress to the site in terms of everyone piling in and out on Milestone Way.

"We also felt that Aldi should provide a proper, adequate crossing on Sycamore Road, particularly for the elderly.

"All of these suggestions have gone unheard and we're not very happy.

"I welcome the store with open arms but I'm disappointed the applicant has not made a better job of it for Chasetown residents."

Fellow councillor Doug Constable said the store would be good for the area.

"We haven't got enough of these places," he said.

"One or two local traders might have been worried but as long as they maintain their standards – which are very high standards – then they needn't worry."

AN INCREDIBLE NEW FORM OF HEATING FROM GERMANY

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conserva-tories with this incredible

German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Legion is planning Armistice Day walk

BURNTWOOD & District Royal British Legion is planning a special walk to mark this year's Remembrance Day.

The organisation is planning the event to mark the 90th anniversary of The Royal British Legion's formation and the fact that this year's ceremony falls on a year ending with 11.

Burntwood & District Royal British Legion spokesman Berni Wilkins said: "As this is a very special year for the Royal British Legion we would love it if local people could literally get behind us on this day or Remembrance Sunday by taking part in our Remembrance Day Parade."

The organisation wants people to collect sponsorship for walking the 1.1 mile of the route, which will set off from Burntwood Memorial Hall, in Rugeley Road.

Public

"Sponsor forms will be available at our open day and membership drive on September 24 at The Grangemoor Working Men's Club, in 112 Cannock Road, Burntwood.

"We, members of the Royal British Land Riders Branch and other local community organisations will be on hand to meet members of the public and tell them all about our organisations and how we can help them.

"We are extremely keen to form a youth section and a ladies section and hope to enrol new members from all sections of the community," added the spokesman.

Councillors to discuss bid for mast

LABOUR councillors in Burntwood are inviting people to discuss a planning application for a new mobile phone mast.

Boney Hay councillors, Diane Evans, Ron Bradbury and Russell Heath are urging those living near Mountbatten Close and Spinney Lane in Boney Hay to call and see the details of the planning application at their surgery on Saturday.

Everything Everywhere has submitted the application to install the32ft pole and associated equipment cabin in Spinney Lane.

Councillor Evans said the mast would be 13ft higher than nearby lighting columns.

The surgery is at Burntwood Library, Sankeys Corner, from 10-11am.

How landscape has changed in 90 years of Cannock Chase

A stroll through nine decades of forest life

ALASTAIR Semple is one man who could never be accused of not planning ahead.

When he decides which trees to plant on Cannock Chase, he doesn't so much think about present-day considerations. He isn't overly concerned about the next decade.

"We're planting trees now for 2080," he says.

The man-made forest at Cannock Chase is 90 years old this summer, and it has certainly come a long way since a group of unemployed miners started planting Scots pine saplings around Pottal Pool in 1921.

Nowaday there are more than five million trees covering an area spanning 6,500 acres.

Yet the basic aim of providing industry with sustainable supplies of timber while preserving one of the Midlands' best wildlife habitats and maintaining an attractive site for visitors is as true today as it was in those humble beginnings.

"In the pine forests, some of the trees are mature after about 60 years, but for commercial timber, many of the broad leaved trees are not ready until after 90 to 110 years," says Alistair, a planning officer from the Forestry Commission, who has worked at the beauty spot for 10 years.

Climate

And working to such a lengthy timescale requires some pretty painstaking long-term planning. Alastair says: "We're not planting trees for the climate that we live in now, we're predicting what it will be like in 2080, and looking for the sort of trees that will be best suited to the climate then.

"At the moment we're sourcing trees from different parts of Europe which feature a more Mediterranean climate, as opposed to our current stock of oak and ash, which we don't think will be as productive in the future."

Last year the Forestry Commission planted 4,700 eucalyptus trees, which is thought will be more resilient to the changing weather conditions of future decades.

It is no surprise then that the forest is still home to some of the trees planted by those miners back in the roaring 20s.

Like many managed forests, the woodland at Cannock has its origins in the crippling wood shortages of the First World War. At the time only five per cent of Britain's original forest cover remained, and the shortage of timber had endangered the country's war effort.

In 1919 the Forestry Commission was formed to ensure there would never again be such shortages, and the planting began two years later.

Yet the Chase and its associated animal and plant communities are part of an historic landscape dating back thousands of years.

The wild fallow deer which roam the Chase today are thought to be descended from the original herd introduced in Norman times for hunting purposes.

The Chase as a whole, which covers 26 square miles in total, is the largest surviving area of lowland heath in the Midlands. It was designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in 1958, and is home to a number of rare and endangered birds, not least migrant nightjars.

Staggered

A feeding station at the Marquis Drive Visitors' Centre, sponsored by the West Midland Bird Club, attracts many species, including bramblings, yellowhammers and bullfinches.

The management of the forest has changed over the years in recognition of the Chase's role as a centre for wildlife.

"The forested areas and the layout of the trees tends to be more staggered, instead of having square management blocks like we had in the 40s and 50s," says Alistair.

"Instead of having straight edges, we have more shaped edges, this not only softens the appearance, it helps to encourage more wildlife.

"We now have wider paths around the forest, and that encourages the animals to move around gradually, rather than be concentrated in one pocket, which is better from the point of view of encouraging them to breed."

The number of visitors has increased sharply in recent years, he adds.

"Ten years ago, the car park I can see from my window was never full, now it's jam-packed every day, and we're open 24-7.

"It used to be a bit of a solitary place in winter, but now we get quite a crowd, we get dog walkers and the like."

"Mountain bikes have seen massive growth. In the 1980s you would only have seen the odd forestry worker riding around on his bike, now we have a 27km single track all around the forest."

Yet while most people know the Chase as a site for recreation and leisure, Alistair says it is important to recognise the role it plays in supporting the economy, pumping out more than 700,000 cu ft of timber each year.

"Timber is one of the biggest imports to the UK, billions are spent every year, money that goes into other countries' pockets, when we could be growing it here," he says.

Centre is flooded following burglary

A NATURE centre near Rugeley was flooded after raiders stole a copper water tank and pipes.

Burglars struck at Four Seasons Nature Centre in Kings Bromley Lane, Handsacre, breaking into the Combined Handicapped and Disabled Society (CHADS) headquarters

They stole the tank and stripped copper piping from its central heating system and feeder tanks.

The crime, last Friday (August 27), caused thousands of pounds worth of damage.

Pc Alison Lewis, officer for Handsacre, said: "The nature centre is available for use by all people. It is run by CHADS, which is a charity, and has to raise all its own funding.

Mess

"The centre is situated off the A513, which is a fairly busy route.

We are appealing for anyone who saw people or vehicles acting suspiciously near the centre on Friday night.".

CHADS opened the centre, the former Armitage football ground, in 1998.

"We have been cleaning up since Saturday. It left everything a real mess," said Angela Silverwood, whose husband Derek founded the charity and is its chairman.

Witnesses should ring Staffordshire Police on 0300 123 4455, quoting incident number 299 of 27 August, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Tumble drier sparks blaze

A TUMBLE drier sparked a blaze at a house in Cannock.

Firefighters were called to Hatherton Road just before 6pm on Friday (August 27) and managed to confine the flames to the garage, where the machine was stored.

The fire is thought to have been caused by an electrical fault.

Summer fun day at church

A CHASETOWN church is hosting a summer fun day this weekend.

It takes place at St Anne's Church, in Church Street, from 2-4pm on Saturday (September 3).

Admission is free to the event, which will feature a bouncy castle, face painting, splat the rat and refreshments.

Camper is hurt as canister explodes

A MAN fled from a burning tent with his hands and arms on fire after a gas canister exploded during a camping trip to Wales.

The victim, from the Cannock area and part of a five-strong group, was treated for burns in hospital.

Lewis Galley was changing the cylinder inside the tent with four friends when leaking gas caught light from a nearby lit candle.

The 22-year-old escaped the canopy and rolled around on the ground outside to put out the flames. He was recovering from first-degree burns at a specialist unit in Birmingham.

Mr Galley had been enjoying a bank holiday break in Buttington, near Welshpool with four friends when disaster struck on Saturday nigh (August 27).

Scott Sims, who was in the tent at the time, said the group had planned to spend a couple of nights at the spot.

He said they were changing a gas canister but had failed to notice a naked flame from a lit candle.

Film-maker close to finishing movie

AN amateur film-maker from Great Wyrley is putting the finishing touches to his debut production – which he hopes to get premiered at the 2012 Cannes Film Festival.

Paul Clothier has been working on his 90-minute feature length animation for around the last three years and is now adding the final touches.

To complete Snakes and Ladders, a modern day black comedy, based on a classic Russian novel by Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Mr Clothier needs to find one more voice actor to fill a middle-eastern role.

In the spring, Paul made an appeal for people with Midlands' accents which has now been filled.

He hopes to have it all wrapped up in time for Christmas. Paul said: "It's close to being finished, frustratingly close, but it's going well and I still need a middle-eastern sounding guy – it's proving difficult to find someone."

The 35-year-old father-of-three, who works as a radiographer at Cannock Hospital, said if the film proved to be a hit he would share some of the success with people who lent their services for free. "If I don't get on well with Cannes, there are other places to try, like the film festival in Toronto," he said.

The film has been painstakingly animated using the Paint function on Paul's home computer.

People who think they might have a suitable voice can contact Paul by sending him an email to: clothier.p@gmail.com

Eight-month stretch after collision on notorious bend

Van driver is sent to jail over death smash

A VAN driver from a village near Rugeley has been jailed for a total of eight months after he smashed into an oncoming car on a sharp bend, killing its driver,

Gareth Hawkins lost control of his Ford Transit on a notorious bend on the main Stafford to Uttoxeter road and collided with a Vauxhall Vectra driven by Craig Logan. The 42-year-old victim may not have been wearing a seat belt, but it would not have protected him from the impact, Mr Nick Burn, prosecuting, told Stafford Crown Court.

The bend where the crash happened, on the main A518 at Lower Loxley, had an "advisory" speed limit of 35mph, with illuminated advance warning signs, and Hawkins admitted his van was doing 40 to 45mph.

"In simple terms, he took the corner too quickly," said Mr Burn.

Hawkins, aged 30, of Ford Way, Armitage, admitted a charge of causing Mr Logan's death by careless driving.

Along with the jail sentence, he was also banned from driving for a year and ordered to take an extended driving test.

The court heard that both men were on their way to work in the early hours of February 9 this year.

Hawkins' van was carrying a full load of kitchen equipment for delivery and its weight put it slightly over the permitted limit for the vehicle.

Substantial

Mr Burn said: "The defendant clearly braked, the effect of what he did was to bring it across the roadway and effectively left Mr Logan with nowhere to go. There was a substantial collision between the vehicles."

Mr Logan, from Ashbourne in Derbyshire, was unconscious at the scene and never regained consciousness.

Judge Robin Onions told Hawkins that drivers of goods vehicles bear an "extra responsibility" to drive safely.

Mr Michael Anning defending, said that Hawkins's remorse was genuine.

"He has had to accept responsibility for the death of another man, it has weighed heavily upon him."

Hawkins worked for the family haulage business, the court was told.

Child star Ben set for return to big screen

A YOUNG Cannock movie star may be returning to the big screen after having a successful year of notable TV appearances.

Nine-year-old Ben Wilby's career took off when he had a memorable role in the 2009 hit British comedy Nativity! Ben's performance has helped him win over an army of fans spread across the globe and television appearances across national television channels.

Proud mum Jillian, of Bishop Close, says talks are ongoing with the team behind Nativity! to reunite the cast and crew for a sequel. It has so far been held up by the production of The Hobbit.

Martin Freeman, who took the lead role of Paul Maddens in Nativity! is currently filming his star turn as Bilbo Baggins in The Lord of the Rings prequel.

Slot

Jillian said: "It's still in the pipeline, but Martin Freeman's off doing The Hobbit so they're waiting for that to get done and then it should get the go-ahead."

Ben is in talks with the producers of ITV's This Morning to have his own slot, after the youngster struck up a good rapport with Keith Lemon during a gadget and toy review slot.

He has also just finished filming a second series of More Four's cult comedy

Film star Ben Wilby

The Increasingly Poor Decisions of Todd Margaret. And, he has been involved in a new show fronted by ex-EastEnders star Joe Swash along with appearances on the John Bishop's Britain.

Young Ben splits his time between his home in Cannock and London. He has started receiving so much fan mail that his mother has set up a PO Box address for him.

Going wild at fun day

Ryan Moore from Heath Hayes with a Gyr X Saker at the wildlife fun day

GIANT ferrets and outsize rabbits were among the more unusual guests at a wildlife fun day in Hednesford

The event, at Cannock Chase Visitor Centre, in Marquis Drive, was aimed at raising awareness of local wildlife.

Youngsters were able to take part in a bug hunt and were also invited to feed the fish. There were displays of bats and butterflies while creepy-crawlies from nearby ponds were brought in for closer inspection.

One of the highlights of the day was a demonstration of the hunting skills of birds of prey, among them a European eagle owl, a barn owl and a Gyr X Saker falcon.

War hero's collection on display

POIGNANT mementos of a Staffordshire Regiment hero's wartime service have been uncovered in a loft and have been handed to the Regiment Museum for posterity.

Thanks to a family member from Cannock the collection has now been presented to the museum and most of the items will go on display for the first time during the Wartime Whittington Weekend on September 17 and 18.

Leonard Bennett was a 21-year-old private in 1940 when he become part of the famous Airborne detachment, commissioned by Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Len took part in the Sicily landings in July 1943. Inexperienced tow pilots dropped some of the gliders too far out to sea and many men drowned.

Len, from Billesley in Birmingham, survived but was later captured and spent the next few years in PoW camps in Italy an Germany.

His niece Debra Harris recently discovered a rich collection of artefacts collected by Len in the attic of the family home.

The collection includes medals, his battle dress and a collection of writings made during his time as a PoW, including postcards written to his fiancee Ellen. Also among the hoard was Ellen's wedding dress from 1945, which will go on show.

Teddies are bearing up for stunt show

CHILDREN at a Burntwood nursery will see their Teddies performing dangerous stunts.

A Teddy fair is being held at Busy Bees Nursery in St Matthew's Sports and Social Club in Shaftsbury Drive on September 17 from 11.30am to 3pm.

Jack Sheldon is bringing along his Teddy high wire.

Teddies will receive a passport upon arrival, then undergo a security check through an X-ray machine.

There will also be a boat bear ride, where Teddies will race in a boat against other cuddlies. Afterwards, Teddies will get certificates.

If any children forget to bring a bear there will be an adoption tent.

Other activities on the day will include a Teddy bear picnic, and fundraising stalls. All the money raised from the day will go to the Rainbow Trust.

Burglar handed two-year jail term

A BURGLAR who raided seven homes in six days has been locked up for two years.

Daniel Norton committed the spate of break-ins in Cannock and Rugeley in July when he was homeless and 'sofa surfing', Stafford Crown Court heard. He also made 13 unsuccessful burglary attempts.

Norton, aged 20, of no fixed address, admitted four charges of burglary and asked for a total of 16 other offences, three of burglary and 13 of attempted burglary to be considered.

Sentencing him to two years' youth custody, Judge Robin Onions said: "You are heading to a very long sentence unless you start doing something about it."

Mr Paul Farrow, prosecuting, said that among the items stolen were a TV, a games console, purse, camera, mobile phones and a laptop computer – none of which has been recovered.

Following his arrest on July 27, Norton went with police on a tour of the areas for him to point out other properties he had broken into or tried to burgle.

Mr Neil Gerrity, defending, said of Norton: "He had no money to feed himself. He is ashamed of what he has done."

Book in for murder talk

LOCAL historian Tony Hunt will be talking about "getting away with murder" tomorrow (Friday).

The Hednesford-born former English teacher is giving two illustrated talks at Cannock library on infamous murders.

The talks, which take place from 2pm at the Manor Avenue centre, have been organised as part of Local and Community History Month.

Tickets are £3.50 or £3 for library members from 01543 510365.

Fundraiser at wine bar

A SILENT auction, raffle and a disco are among the fundraisers at a Burntwood wine bar next month.

It takes place from 7-11pm on October 10 at 7s, in Bridge Cross Road and will be in aid of the Midland Air Ambulance and Redwings Horse Sanctuary.

Special guest will be Gil Riley from Pool House Vets.

Tickets are £3, available from 1st Equestrian and Embroidery, 7c Bridge Cross Road.

An artist's impression of the new-look Pye Green Community Centre

First glimpse revealed of community centre revamp

AN ARTIST'S impression of how a £400,000 community centre will look when completed has been revealed.

The modern flat-roofed building incorporates Scandinavian-style wood panels and a glass-sided reception area.

The first phase of work at Pye Green Community Centre has seen a new extension incorporating a meeting room and exhibition area.

Work has now begun on improvements to the old part of the building, in Bradbury Lane, which will see a new kitchen, toilets, refurbished function room and bar and an IT suite.

Contractor Niken Construction estimates the centre should ready to reopen at the end of October. A launch day to showcase the new facilities to the public in November has yet to be confirmed.

Town council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson said: "It is a much-needed facility and we are already receiving many requests from people and organisations who want to use the centre in the future.

"Everything is being designed to ensure the building is completely accessible for people with mobility problems."

On completion, a time capsule will be placed in the building.

Appeal to villagers over club

A VILLAGE club in Norton Canes has launched an appeal for more people to make use of its facilities.

The Lido Working Men's Club and Institute in School Road currently has debts of about £13,000.

The club, which dates back to 1889, has about 400 members.

Club secretary David Smith, who has been a member for 17 years, said they were suffering from ever-growing bills, falling attendance and ageing membership.

The club's committee is warning villagers that they need to use the club or lose it.

The club has darts and crib teams and its own over-60s club.

Membership has fallen in recent years from a high of more than 1,500.

The club was relaunched as The Lido in 1946 for returning soldiers and pitmen offering cheap drinks and live entertainment.

The committee has contacted Cannock Chase Tory MP Aidan Burley to ask for his help in turning the fortunes of the club around.

They fear that if they are forced to close the club might never re-open.

Breakaway group set up in traders' wrangle

A BREAKAWAY traders' group has been set up in a Hednesford following on-going arguments about how things are being run in the area.

David Wisehall, an agency worker from the town, has set-up the Hednesford Town Community Association after the Traders Association folded.

Linda Whitehouse, vice chairman of the former traders group, says the organisation ran into difficulties when she planned an annual general meeting (AGM) which stirred controversy.

Mrs Whitehouse, aged 50, said the group disbanded when it was discovered that the organisation did not have an official legal constitution.

According to the traders, Mrs Whitehouse organised an AGM without giving the legally required 21 days notice, angering some of the town's businessmen and women.

Support

In the interim, Mr Wisehall, working with another trader called Simon Orme, has set up the Hednesford Town Community Association, which, he says, has the support of traders.

In a pre-prepared statement, the two men said: "Our HTC will continue to represent traders, organisations and residents of Hednesford as agreed at the dissolution of Hednesford Traders Association AGM held on June 14, 2011.

"Until ongoing matters become clear, we wish to make no further comment."

However, Mrs Whitehouse says she still has the support of at least 12 town traders and a meeting will be held on September 29 where the Hednesford Traders Association will be re-built from scratch.

It is thought the meeting will be held at the Lightworks Conference Centre, but is yet to be confirmed.

Electric blanket testing

FREE electric blanket testing sessions are being offered to residents across Cannock Chase and South Staffordshire next month.

Any blankets that fail the testing will be disposed of but anyone over 60 and living in the county will be offered a new single or double under-blanket as a replacement.

Testing will be held on September 7 at Penkridge Fire Station, Boscomoor Lane, between 10am and 12.30pm and on September 9 at Cannock Fire Station, Old Hednesford Road, between 10am and 12.30pm, and 2pm and 4pm.

People can also take their blankets to a number of drop-off points: Great Wyrley Library on September 5 between 9am and 5.30pm for collection on September 9 between 9am and 5.30pm; Rugeley Fire Station, Bryan's Lane on September 6 and 8 between 9am and 11am, to be collected on September 13 and 15; Rugeley Library, in Anson Street, on September 8 between 9am and 6pm and collect them on September 10 between 9am and 4pm; and Hednesford Library on September 8 between 9am and 5pm for collection on September 10 between 9:30am and 1pm.

Family scheme marks birthday

Staff and customers celebrate the fifth birthday at Heath Way Young Families Scheme in Heath Hayes. Back, l to r: Amelia Hill with Lilly, Jess Hulbert, Councillor John Bernard and senior support Worker Jean Reid: Front, l to r: Eleanor Box, Leannne Logan and Kate Brown with Bailey Metcalf

STAFF and customers linked to a support scheme for young families celebrated its fifth birthday with an open day.

The Heath Way young families' scheme in Heath Hayes, Cannock, has been supporting vulnerable young parents in the local community since 2006, helping them develop the skills they need to live independently.

The scheme offers supported accommodation for seven young families in the Cannock area. These are couples with children or single parents, with the mums and dads aged between 16 and 25.

The scheme is run by Bromford Support, part of social housing provider the Bromford Group – in partnership with Cannock Chase District Council.

It is funded by Staffordshire County Council's Joint Commissioning Unit.

Cannock Chase councillor John Bernard presented certificates and flowers to the original customers that lived at the scheme when it opened in 2006.

Anna Gillespie, Bromford Support business manager, said: "We want to celebrate the fantastic work carried out by the Heath Way young families scheme, which helps prevent young families becoming repeatedly homeless."

Salons raise Lupus funds

A CHARITY open day at two Hednesford businesses raised £350 for the West Midlands Lupus Group.

Jabu Hair Studio and Beauty by Viki Hibbs, both based at Casa Mia Court, held the event on Saturday, August 20.

A percentage of the day's takings from both businesses went to the charity along with the proceeds from a tombola, raffle and cake stall.

Beautician Viki was diagnosed with Lupus in 2008.

Her family have been active fundraisers for the charity since then and her brother John ran the London Marathon for the second time for the charity earlier this year.

Offer on bus travel to city

STUDENTS from Cannock, Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay going to university or college in Birmingham are being offered a saver ticket to use on a new X31 bus service.

The bus runs up to every 60 minutes during the daytime from Monday to Saturday.

Arriva Midlands spokesman Keith Myatt said the Student Saver tickets offered unlimited bus travel across the company's network.

It costs £170 for the autumn term and £140 each for spring and summer or £400 for the full academic year. Autumn tickets bought by September 17 will also be £140.

Estate scheme is delayed

WORK on an "eyesore" housing estate in Cannock where 170 flats are to be torn down and replaced by new homes has been delayed.

Builders had been due to move on to the Moss estate in Chadsmoor next April but the project has been put back until June. However, Cannock Chase Council has reaffirmed its commitment to the scheme.

Plans for the estate were first unveiled in March 2008 after new housing legislation condemned the pre-reinforced concrete buildings.

Barrett homing in on a career in creative arts

A STUDENT from Cannock Wood has been awarded a place at a brand new specialist creative, digital and performing arts academy.

Jake Barrett, aged 16, beaten off tough competition to become one of the first broadcast students to attend the new multi-million pound Birmingham Ormiston Academy.

Student Jake Barrett

It is the first academy of its kind outside of London and will be welcoming digital and performing arts students from across the region when it opens its doors next month.

Located in Birmingham's Eastside, the new academy is state-funded and open to 14 to 19-year-olds hoping to pursue a career in the creative industries.

Former Chase Academy pupil Jake said: "I've always been interested in a career in film production and often find myself focusing on how films are shot rather than watching the film itself.

Experience

"A year ago I set up my own photography business as I thought the imagination and creativity involved an 'in' into film production."

He added: "I didn't think I'd be lucky enough to find an academy that offered me the chance to obtain the relevant qualifications and experience to get into the industry and I can't wait to start learning new skills in September."

BOA is sponsored by Ormiston Trust, Birmingham City University and partnered with Maverick TV and the BRIT School.

Chase is top spot for picnic

CANNOCK Chase has been named one of the top places in the country to enjoy a picnic.

The popular beauty spot was awarded 'Gold' status in the national competition.

Tess Sandilands, author of Happy Campers, was asked to travel up and down the country and chose 32 locations to recommend.

She said: "Cannock Chase may be one of the smallest areas of outstanding natural beauty in Britain but it is also one of the most fun."

The recommendations have been collected by butter firm Country Life, which has used the data to create a new mobile phone app giving advice on outdoor sites. Cannock Chase is one of only 32 areas to be labelled a 'Gold Spot', out of more than 600 listed sites.

Mobile phone users, or visitors to www.countrylifegreatbritishpicnics.co.uk can enter their postcode to see if any locations near them have been recommended as top picnic sites.

Chamber to meet its neighbour

CHASE Chamber of Commerce is teaming up for a joint event with the Black Country Chamber.

The Meet the Neighbours business breakfast is taking place at Walsall College's Jerome K Jerome Restaurant at 7am next Thursday (September 8).

Members of the Chase Chamber can book a place by e-mailing events@chase-chamber.com

It will cost £12 for members and £20 for non-members.

The aim is to bring together local businesses of all sizes and organisers hope to have more than 60 taking part.

Hotel stages wedding fair

A WEDDING fair takes place this weekend at the Roman Way Hotel in Cannock.

There will be more than 30 exhibitors at Sunday's event (September 4) from 10am to 4pm.

The Watling Street hotel's in house wedding co-ordinators will be showing visitors around. Admission will be free.

Construction firm finds work on the waterfront

A CHESLYN Hay-based steel construction company is currently completing the structural steelwork for the second phase of developer Jessup's Waterfront South, £65m canalside regeneration project at Walsall.

Along with other local contractors, Traditional Structures is benefitting from Jessup's policy of supporting local contractors and suppliers and keeping the financial and employment benefits in the local community.

Traditional Structures won the contract for the first phase Art One apartments, which are now almost fully occupied, before winning the second phase work.

These contracts have provided a £2m plus boost in turnover. Phil Hadley, managing director of Traditional Structures, said: "It has been particularly satisfying working with a developer who believes in supporting local companies and skills.

"This policy brings valuable benefits to local communities, encouraging employment and creating opportunities for young people through apprenticeships and work experience".

Traditional Structures is winning work in the Midlands and other areas of the UK for a diverse range of projects in education, retail, leisure, health care, commercial, industrial and agriculture.

Projects also include schemes for the Ministry of Defence and the new Cross Rail East/West underground line in London.

Pupils rise to challenge with top GCSE results

PUPILS across the Chase have been celebrating top GCSE marks, with school bosses delighted at one of the best years on record.

Cardinal Griffin RC High School in Cannock saw improvements from last year, with results showing that 64 per cent of pupils achieved five or more GCSEs at grades A* to C.

Head Michael Burrowes said: "Each year, we place huge demands on our young people and each year they rise to the challenge." Maple Hayes Dyslexia School in Lichfield achieved a 100 per cent pass rate at GCSE.

Headteacher Dr Daryl Brown said more than 40 per cent scored five or more A to C grades. "Once again we have shown that dyslexia is a hurdle that can be conquered," he said.

Students at Chase Academy were praised for their achievements. Ninety five per cent of pupils passed at least five subjects at grades A to C. A school spokesman said: "The students have worked extremely hard and this has clearly paid off. We are extremely proud of our students' achievements."

Particular successes were Toby Millington whose 15 grades included six A*and six As, Katie Wilson, who scored four A* and two As among her subjects, Ben Soen, whose marks included two A* and six As, Creamy Yung with six As and four Bs, Clement Hung with two A* and six As and Jamie Mitchell, whose 13 subjects saw him attain four As and six Bs.

Year 10 student Edgar Lee achieved A grade A-level maths three years early.

Staff and students at Abbots Bromley School are celebrating a 100 per cent pass rate,while Kingsmead Technology College in Hednesford saw its overall pass rate rise for the fifth consecutive year to 94 per cent five A*- to C.

Notable

A record 10 per cent of students achieved eight GCSE A* or A grades, with notable successes including James Sutton with 10 A* and one A, Emma Langston with eight A* and three As, Jack James, whose tally comprised seven A* and four As and Ellie Bridges, who added five As to her six A*.

Elizabeth Foster passed 11 subjects, with nine of them As and one an A*.

Year Nine student Lauren Thomas passed Spanish with an A* and Luther Williamson, from Year Eight gained an A* in GCSE maths.

Erasmus Darwin Academy in Chasetown saw 99 per cent pass of Year 11s gained five A* to C grades at GCSE or equivalent.

Saoirse Conaghan-Burnell scored three A* and six As, Emma Bleakley three A* and five As, Grace Cunningham three A* and five As and Megan Foster four A* and four As.

Principal, Bernice Astling, said: "We are very proud of their achievements."

Students at Lichfield Cathedral School were celebrating as 97 per cent of them achieved at least five A* to C grades.

Headmaster Michael Chanter said: "The students' commitment, enthusiasm and hard work have been rewarded."

Students 'overjoyed'

Fire crew in visit to nursery

FIREFIGHTERS amazed youngsters by paying a visit to their nursery.

Members of Cannock's White Watch dropped in on Happy Tots Nursery in Bridgtown as part of the 'People Who Help Us' topic.

The youngsters climbed aboard the fire appliance and found out what some of the buttons and dials were for. They even got to try on firemen's helmets.

They took turns to ask questions and were taught some basic fire safety. At the end of the afternoon, they got to play with the fire hoses in the car park.

Nursery manager Judy Kelly said: "Lots of them will have gone home telling their parents they want to be in the fire service."

Service as little ones 'graduate'

CHILDREN at a Cannock nursery held a graduation ceremony ahead of their move to primary school.

To mark the end of their nursery years, the little ones at the Happy Tots Nursery in Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown took part in the special ceremony. Parents watched as the youngsters, wearing caps and gowns, received scrolls.

They also gave little speeches about what they have enjoyed at nursery and what they are looking forward to at their new school.

Nursery manager Judy kelly said: "They've all been little stars, and we'll miss them very much."

Ambitious plans to transform play area

A COMMUNITY group has announced ambitious plans to transform a quiet field in to a £100,000 hub of activity.

Friends of Norton Canes are applying for funding to improve and upgrade a field known as the Cema, between Church Road and Penny Cress Green.

The group's treasurer Sheila Harding said: "Our plan is to install extra pathways, outdoor gym equipment for all ages, benches, a remarked football pitch, a cycle rack, a picnic area, extra refuse and dog litter bins and extra tree planting.

"Some of the trees are to feature a plaque dedicated to deceased active local community members. We also want a work of art depicting the history of the Cema and are hoping that local people and schools will be involved in the design."

The Cema in Norton Canes

The plans make an ambitious change for the group which was formed to put up lights around the village at Christmas.

Mrs Harding, aged 66, said the group has applied to Sport England and the National Lottery for funding help. "We've had lots of support from local people and organisations who want to make use of the field. Anyone who wants to see Norton Canes improve can be part of our group."

The Friends of Norton Canes also want help from local people to find out more about the history of the field.

Mrs Harding said: "We can't find out where the name came from, it's a bit of an anomaly and we are looking for pointers.

"We need to know if anyone has memories of playing on this field when the mineral rail and canal crossed it, or do they have any photographs we can copy for reference? On ancient maps this area was known as Norton Green."

Call 01543 275013, or send information to 18 Pinfold Lane, Norton Canes, Cannock, WS11 9PH.

Coach death ruled 'genuine accident'

Line manager Eve Shaw with William Preston, aged three, Hanna Choudhary, Jessica Parton and Molly Matthews, all aged two

A COACH driver told an inquest he could not see a disabled woman in a wheelchair before his vehicle reversed into her at Cannock bus station.

Victim Ruby Draper, aged 74, died three weeks after the July 29, 2010, accident. She was pushed from her wheelchair when the rear end of a Shire Travel tour coach knocked her over at the station in Stafford Road.

Mrs Draper, of Elmcroft Court, Church Street, Cannock, suffered broken ribs. Her husband Raymond who was pushing her at the time, suffered minor injuries.

They were getting on the bus for a day trip to Weston-super-Mare on last July 29. Mrs Draper, who was registered blind and received kidney dialysis, was taken to New Cross Hospital in Wolverhampton. Her health deteriorated and she died on August 20.

Last week's inquest at Cannock Coroners' Court heard how the coach had not been able to park where driver Gary Morgan wanted, because of stationary cars and a minibus.

Clipped

Mr Morgan said he had needed to move the bus to allow Mrs Draper to get on to the vehicle from a higher part of the kerb.

He said he told them he would move it and he added: "I expected the couple to take the path around the bus station to board."

But Mr and Mrs Draper walked between the Shire Travel coach and the minibus and as Mr Morgan turned his vehicle, the rear end clipped them.

"I did not see them before moving off. I always check my mirrors," he added.

The cause of death was given as renal failure linked to her type 2 diabetes as well as complications from rib injuries.

Coroner Andrew Haigh recorded an accidental death verdict. He said: "I accept Mr Morgan was not aware of the accident until he was told by a passenger. It's a genuine tragic accident."

Children get worldly wise

YOUNGSTERS at a Penkridge nursery got a taste of different cultures when they sampled culinary delights from Mexico, China and India during a day-long event.

Youngsters brought in holiday snaps and mementos to share their experiences with staff at Turtles Nursery, in Wolverhampton Road for the Around the World Day. As a special treat, foods like Mexican wraps, spring rolls and noodle dishes were shared out among the nursery for youngsters.

Staff and children also dressed up in costumes for the occasion.

Parents willing to justify nuisance

THIS letter is in response to an article which appeared in your paper about: 'Court ban leaves drummer rocking' on July 28.

Am I the only person to be astounded by the article complaining how "out of order" it was for Rugeley boy Jack Smith to be banned by a court for playing his drums?

On reading the article the ban was between 10pm and 9am.

May I suggest that a child of eight should be in bed at 10 o'clock at night. This willingness of parents to justify nuisance and anti-social behaviour makes me despair.

How can we expect future generations to grow up with a sense of social conscience and acceptable behaviour if parents condone and allow this behaviour? Little wonder some youths grow up to riot if this is the style of parenting they are subjected to in their formative years.

Summer fair thanks

THANK you for advertising our summer fair in two editions – the second one, in the week we held the event (August 6) on the front page.

My manager would just like to thank you for assisting in promoting our event, and to thank all the staff, friends, families and service users who supported us, making it our best ever fundraising.

In total, we raised £1,500, which will be used for various purchases or entertainment for the benefit of the clients who use our service.

Once again, thank you for your assistance.

Too costly for MP?

WITH Parliament still supporting Quangos with taxpayer-funded credit cards, splashing out £1.5m on questionable items, our MP Aidan Burley said: "No one begrudges officials spending money on essential items."

Well, as Mr Burley is the most expensive MP in Staffordshire and the third most expensive in the Midlands, it seems about time he explained why Cannock Chase, one of the smallest constituencies, requires such high expenses claims.

Are we too costly for him? Is he not up to the job, or just another flunky.

HELEN OF HEDNESFORD

Wallace & Gromit with some of the prizes donated by generous Hednesford traders

Crackin' competition, Gromit

WALLACE & Gromit would like to give a crackin' thank you to every single trader and individual who has supported their 'hide and seek' adventure in Hednesford, either by displaying posters in shop windows, or by donating an unbelievable amount of prizes for the children of Hednesford.

Also to Hednesford Town Community Association who invited them to play.

Gromit wants to keep them all but Wallace has told him he will have to make do with an extra portion of Wensleydale instead!

Special thanks must go to The Candy Stall who have done a brilliant job helping the pair, but he biggest thank you of all must go to all the children in Hednesford who have taken part so enthusiastically.

This is only the first of many promotions that the community association has in the pipeline and shows that, together, everyone in Hednesford can look forward to a crackin' future. Watch this space.

The prize draw took place by the town clock last Saturday, September 3 with all prizewinners going into a grand draw for Wallace & Gromit, the hide and seek champions.

Handling riots highlights need for more police

I WOULD like to pay tribute to the courage of our police who faced the rioters in our cities recently.

Thanks to them order was restored and offenders are being brought to justice. This is solely due to our police and not due to any politicians. Our police officers put their safety at risk to protect us and we should be grateful.

Thankfully Cannock Chase was not involved in the riots but I know that a number of officers from Cannock police station went to help their colleagues in the West Midlands and played a full part in dealing with the riots. To do so officers had leave cancelled and were called on to work long shifts and they did this willingly, despite their low morale due to pay freezes, pension contribution increases and being criticised whatever they do.

The riots have highlighted the need to retain police numbers. The Government is cutting police budgets by 20 per cent which will lead to a reduction in frontline officers.

Under current proposals, there will be 384 fewer police officers on the streets in Staffordshire by 2015 – a cut of 17.8 per cent. Nationally there will be more than 16,000 fewer officers. This is not acceptable.

Public safety is too important. The riots have shown the need to retain the current level of police numbers and the Government should reverse its plans for cuts. After all, its plans for directly elected Police Commissioners (which few people want) are expected to cost £100 million. Surely this money could be better spent on frontline officers?

Lessons in tracing family tree to restart

I AM about to start classes in Family History again on Thursday October 6.

I have been providing these lessons for the past 15 years and I am planning to run a six-week beginners' course on a Thursday from 10am to noon at Burntwood Library. The lessons include basic steps in tracing family trees and advice on avoiding pitfalls.

It also includes an optional visit to the Lichfield Joint Record Office and to the Mormon Church in Lichfield, both of which hold a very large number of records.

Anyone interested should have basic computer skills.

If anyone is interested, or would like more information, call me on 01543 684208 or e-mail pam.woodburn@talktalk.net

Volunteers pack bags for shoppers

Members of the Princes Trust, who helped bag-pack for customers at Morrisons

VOLUNTEERS spent the day helping shoppers pack their bags at a Cannock supermarket as part of a development programme.

Thirteen members of the Prince's Trust team were at Morrisons, in Mill Street.

The volunteers, aged 16-to-25, are on a 12-week programme aimed at building their confidence and making them more employable.

The group has already visited Chase Day Services, which helps people with learning difficulties, to improve the outdoor area.

They have also been washing cars and raising money by walking 100 miles at Fitness First.

Team leader Kate Gibson said the bag-pack raised £480, to be spent on improving outdoor areas in the town.

At the end of the programme the volunteers get a certificate signed by The Prince of Wales and a range of skills aimed at getting them into work.

Store expansion to bring in extra jobs

AN EXTRA 80 jobs are being created in Cannock as supermarket chain Sainsbury's expands.

The store is expanding across Staffordshire and the West Midlands with 280 posts in total being made available.

The chain is investing heavily in the region following news of big profits. Stores in Wednesfield and Kidderminster are extending, while one is being created at Wolverhampton's flagship new bus station.

The jobs boost in Cannock comes as its Orbital Centre store is enlarged.

Work is progressing at the branch, which already employs 400 people.

A new mezzanine level is being installed as well as an extension to the shop floor, a new entrance, restaurant, deli counter and new clothing department. Work is due to be completed next month.

Improved

Sainsbury's spokesman Joyce Yip said: "By investing in a number of our stores across the region, we can provide an improved shopping environment for our customers while boosting job opportunities for residents who live near our stores."

The Kidderminster store in Carpet Trades Way is expanding and will need 100 extra workers. The Rookery Street store in Wednesfield is also earmarked for a 21,600sqft extension which will include a new cafe and see 80 jobs created.

The petrol station will be moved to another part of the site.

A new Sainsbury's Local is also planned for Wolverhampton Bus Station which will create in the region of 20 to 25 jobs.

The company is also trying to secure planning permission for a new store on Raglan Street in Wolverhampton with jobs for 190 people.

End is in sight for £3m work to repair dam

COUNCIL bosses say an end will soon be in sight to the £3million project to repair Chasewater Dam.

Gallons of water have been drained from the reservoir as the walls have not been repaired for 200 years.

The work was commissioned following a report by Lichfield District Council which said that urgent action was needed. The authority said without the work, the walls of the dam could have been breached by a heavy flood.

The council's leisure chief Neil Turner said if the work had been put off any longer a tide of water could have escaped towards Shenstone and Tamworth, risking many lives.

In May, Staffordshire County Council took over the ownership of Chasewater Country Park and the reservoir from Lichfield District Council.

County Council spokesman Richard Caddy said: "We are making good progress, and I think we will be able to announce a completion date by mid-September."

The reservoir provides water supply for the region's canal system.

This water travels through a culvert which runs on the bed of the reservoir, under the eastern dam to the valve chamber and then out into the canal.

Chasewater Country Park has remained open but the work has caused some disruption for groups which operate near the dam.

Friends to hit heights

TWO friends from Cheslyn Hay are setting out to climb Africa's highest mountain this weekend – in aid of the British Heart Foundation.

Andy Leeder and Mark Alton will head out on a 10-day challenge to climb Kilimanjaro.

The pair are looking to raise at least £3,800 each and will fly out to Tanzania on Saturday, September 3, joining a group of 38 fundraisers.

Andy said: "We're raising money for an issue very close to our hearts.

"Mark's father died of a heart attack at the age of 51 and my father needed a life saving quadruple heart bypass operation last year."

Give blood sessions

DONORS have two chances to give blood next week. Sessions take place at the Garner Suite, of Lea Hall Social Club, Sandy Lane, Rugeley, on Wednesday (September 7) and on Friday (9) at the Memorial Institute, Rugeley Road, Burntwood.

Session times at both venues are from 1.30 to 3.30pm and from 4.30 to 7:30pm. Call 0300 123 23 23 to book.

Group commemorates history of site

Railway buffs post memorial to station

A GROUP of railway enthusiasts have erected a memorial post to commemorate a railway station that shut nearly 50 years ago.

Rob Taylor, founder of the South Staffordshire Railway group, has been in talks with Hammerwich parish council for months discussing the best way to keep the history of the site alive to make sure it is not forgotten forever.

The group is a voluntary organisation that focuses on the South Staffordshire Railway Line, from Wychnor to Walsall.

The 31-year-old council worker said: "We have been in talks with Hammerwich parish council for months, about putting some kind of information/memorial post at the former railway station.

"We feel the history of the station and railway should be recognised for local people and anyone visiting the Hammerwich area to enjoy.

"We have the largest heritage photo collection online and run a campaign for the reopening of the line, at first for freight and hopefully later on for passengers."

Report

After getting support and permission from the parish council, the post, funded by Mr Taylor, was erected next to the old station footbridge, which still stands today.

The station opened in 1849 and closed in 1965 as part of the Beeching Axe – the name given to the Government's attempt to reduce the cost of running the nation's railways. Dr Richard Beeching was tasked with writing the official report titled The Reshaping of British Railways.

Hammerwich station was built and served by the South Staffordshire Railway, which later became London, Midland and Scottish Railway. Mr Taylor hopes more former railways up and down the country will be resurrected to ease congestion on roads.

He said: "Although I'm not really for or against HS2, we are campaigning to get old lines reopened, which will help reduce traffic on the country's roads."

The South Staffordshire Railway ran for 23 miles from the Great Western Railway network at Dudley to Walsall.

'Inspirational' teenager sets sail on voyage

A TEENAGER from Burntwood took part in a unique experience sailing off the south coast – thanks to Dame Ellen MacArthur.

Stephen Sutton, aged 16, has recently finished undergoing treatment for colon cancer at Birmingham Children's Hospital and the trip was arranged by the Ellen MacArthur Cancer Trust. The Trust aims to inspire young people's recovery from cancer through yachting.

Stephen was joined on his four-day trip by five other young people on board their boat, Scarlett Oyster.

He said: "I had never been sailing before, I hadn't even thought about sailing before I got the opportunity to come on the trip.

"We have all been through similar experiences and to go sailing for a few days is a good escape. It is hard to describe but there is a real positive attitude all around."

The trip set sail from Cowes on the Isle of Wight on July 26, spending four nights on the Solent waters, with Dame Ellen joining the group for a dinner on the first night.

She said: "These children face experiences that no child should ever have to go through, and yet they do it with the biggest smile on their faces. They are truly 'inspirational."

The voyage was led by professional, experienced sailors. A medical professional joined the children on board.

A CANNOCK man is going one step further in his efforts to raise money for Midlands Air Ambulance.

Nick Lovett, aged 38, of Cannock Wood, is donning a full Roman centurion uniform and walking Hadrian's Wall on September 10.

Nick is hoping to raise £2,000 from the 27-mile trek, which he is doing with nine other walkers. He will be the only one who will be wearing a Roman outfit.

He said: "I thought wearing the uniform would make people want to dig a bit deeper. The majority of the group want to do it in around eight hours, so I'm not sure how long it will take me in the armour!"

To sponsor Nick visit http://fundraising.midlandsairambulance.com/hadrianswallevent

Rating of 'excellent'

RESIDENTS using Cannock Chase Council's housing and council tax benefit service have rated it excellent after processing times were cut to their lowest in three years.

Average processing across the district now takes just 7.6 days. Between April and June this year residents completed surveys. More than 83 per cent rated the speed and accuracy of the service as excellent.

Members show off their creative talents

THE branch has been very busy and will be out and about during September. The August meeting was opened with the chairman Doreen Archer reading correspondence from head office giving instructions for entries for the craft display at the next year's AGM in Birmingham.

The theme of the crafts exhibition will be 'The Olympic Games'. One member from the Hednesford branch will be submitting items.

Scones with jam and cream plus tea and coffee in aid of The Macmillan Nurses charity raised more than £50.

There was no speaker for the August meeting. Instead, some members brought in a wonderful display of crafts they had made. Pottery, crochet, knitting, greeting cards, painting and tapestry were some of the skills shown. It was amazing to see the members' talents. Thanks to all the ladies who brought their items to show.

There was also a sale of new and nearly new clothes. Donations from the sale were made to the Guild's charity fund.

On August 24 a free trip to Southport was organised for members with visitors paying £10. This meant there was no lunch club meeting. There is also an outing to Moreton-in-the-Marsh and Bourton-on-the-Water on September 20. The lunch club will meet at The Little Fawn, Milford on September 28.

The September meeting will take place on Monday 12 at 1pm instead of the usual 2pm. Fish and chips will be served for the annual harvest lunch.

Meetings take place at St Peter's Church hall on the second Monday of each month at 2pm. Enquiries can be made with the chairman on 01543 877987.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

THE evening of August 9 saw SI Cannock & District hosting a fun quiz night, held at St Luke's Primary School in Cannock.

Twelve teams entered – Soroptimists brought friends and family to join with them and a team from the Tamworth Soroptimist Club came along too.

Quiz master was Chris Wardle, deputy legal adviser for Staffordshire. Chris is well known in the area for setting interesting quizzes. The winners, by two points, were our friends from Tamworth.

Although this wasn't intended as a fundraising night, a raffle raised £160 which will be divided between Pathway, the refuge for women victims of domestic violence, Cannock Friends of St Giles Hospice and the Air Ambulance, the latter two being president Eileen Cryer's charities for this year.

SI Cannock will meet again on September 13 at The Barns, Huntington for its monthly business meeting.

For more about the club, phone membership secretary Lakhwinder Thompson on 01922 710720 or visit www.soroptimist-gbi.org/cannock-and-district

Christmas lunch venue is sought

PRESIDENT Stella Winfield welcomed members to the August meeting. Birthday greetings were given to Sheila Harvey and Ellen Allcock.

The president advised members that the committee was still looking into venues into for the Christmas lunch.

Secretary Chris Pace read out future events from SFWI. A group co-ordinator is still required by the Heathside Group. Any member interested in taking on this role was asked contact the Stafford WI office.

Cannock WI had sent an email to the other three-sister WIs asking if they would be interested in joining in a summer group lunch.

Members were told a suggestion of a SWITCHES evening, where everyone brings at least five items of redundant clothing, shoes, jewellery, and bags to sell. Apart from this being a social occasion the more serious message is that members are concerned about cheap throw away clothes and the environmental impact and social effects and poor wages and working conditions in the retail business.

CANNOCK WI

Social secretaries Jenni and Jan have arranged a day trip to Gloucester Keys on Thursday September 22, with the coach leaving Bideford Way at 9.15.

The cookery group's July recipe of broccoli and smoked salmon roulade was followed by a dessert of brandied peaches in a zabaglione cream.

The games day on August 25 had to be cancelled due to hospital appointments.

The morning's speaker Ben Stephens, a financial estate planner, gave an informative talk on making of wills and how and who to leave money to.

The next meeting is on September 8 at St Luke's Church Hall at 10.30am, with a talk on environmental aids for sensory loss, followed by a buffet party for Agnes Overton's 90th birthday.

Council leader fury at hoard tour 'snub'

COUNCIL bosses in Walsall have expressed disappointment after the town was left out ot of a new Staffordshire Hoard tour.

The tour is to visit schools, art galleries and other venues around the county. But council bosses feel Walsall was snubbed – despite the treasure being discovered not far from Brownhills, in Hammerwich.

Walsall Council leader Mike Bird said that under the old local authority boundaries, the haul would have been considered a Walsall find. He said: "I would love to see it in Walsall. I don't know why this isn't the case.

"We have the New Art Gallery Walsall and Walsall Museum, both of which are excellent venues. It would be great to have it here in the borough."

Staffordshire County Council is working on the new tour with Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery, the Potteries Museum and Art Gallery and other councils in the county.

The aim is to tell the story of the hoard and the Anglo-Saxon history of the region through a series of permanent and temporary displays.

STAFF at a Cannock store dressed in bright and colourful outfits as part of a fundraising Hawaiian-themed day.

Iceland workers are aiming to raise £1,000 for the firm's charity of the year, Alzheimers Research UK.

The Market Place store is doing its bit to help out with the supermarket's national goal of raising £1million.

Cannock staff members Shaun Nicholls and Chelsea Arrowsmith have already done a 195ft bungee jump. while Daniel Blick and Adam Porter will run 11 miles from the Iceland store in Stafford back to Cannock to boost the effort. Manager Jan Stagg said: "We're doing our bit to help."

A heroes' send-off for leavers

SUPERHEROES at a nursery in Rugeley swung into action at a leaving party to raise money for charity.

Children at Horn End Nursery dressed up as a variety of superheroes and princesses at a party to say goodbye to the five-year-olds leaving for school.

More than 50 parents, grandparents and children turned out for the event which raised £53 for Momentum's Brain Injury Rehabilitation Centres.

The children watched the 10 leavers get presented with certificates wishing them the best in their new school.

Amy Carroll, nursery manager, said: "Most of the kids who are leaving have been with us since they were babies so it's a nice way to say bye and wish them well at school."

She added: "Even the toddlers got involved. Everyone had a great day and it was lovely send off for the leavers."

New nursery opens up for sneak peek

A NEW Rugeley nursery is opening its doors for a sneak preview this weekend.

Little Graduates Nursery School is due to open to Rugeley toddlers later this year and ahead of the launch parents are invited to an open day on Saturday (September 3).

The new pre-school centre, in Power Station Road, will offer 75 places to children aged up to five-years-old.

Facilities will include a walk-in crèche, library and an ICT Suite, as well as a kitchen on site with a nursery chef cooking fresh meals.

Louise Dare and Donna West have set up Little Graduates and Louise urged prospective parents to see what they had to offer.

Fantastic

Many local businesses have donated beautiful equipment to Little Graduates, including JCB that have donated a fantastic digger cab for the children to use in the new exciting outdoor area," she added.

"This new nursery school not only offers new employment opportunities in Rugeley but also provides childcare facilities for the new business sites in the area such as Tesco and Amazon with flexible opening hours."

The pre-open day starts at 9.30am at Celcon House, with carers and children both invited.

Visit www.littlegraduates.co.uk for more information on the nursery.

Fishing trip for children

The group of fisherman enjoy the day at Carney Pools

A GROUP of Rugeley youngsters have been taking up fishing as part of a scheme to tackle anti-social behaviour.

More than 10 children and teenagers took part in a trip to Carney Pools, near Wolseley Bridge.

The event was organised by Rugeley Young Peoples Partnership, a group that arranges activities with the aims of getting children off the street and reducing anti-social behaviour.

The day was partially funded by Partners Assuring a Safer Staffordshire (PASS).

Local PCSO Liz Dale and Pc Paul Bradbury from Rugeley Neighbourhood Policing Team were involved in taking the group on the trip.

PCSO Dale said: "The kids had never fished before and during the day they got to learn how to fish and made new friends. We had an amazing day and caught plenty of fish.

Indiana out to be top dog at Crufts

Nicola Garrett, of Rugeley, and her Shetland sheepdog Indiana who have qualified the Crufts dog agility competition

RUGELEY will have representation at the UK's most prestigious dog show next year after a woman and her pet qualified for Crufts.

Nicola Garrett and Indiana, a Shetland sheepdog, proved to be the perfect match at Kennel Club's International Agility Festival, in Northamptonshire, when they won the British Open semi final for small dogs.

The festival is the world's largest dog agility competition and saw 2,300 dogs from 22 different countries compete for the top positions.

Nicola and Indiana will now go on to compete in the final at Crufts, which takes place at the Birmingham NEC in March 2012.

"I'm really excited to have won such a prestigious competition and to have qualified for Crufts," Nicola said.

"I've been doing agility for more than 20 years – it's just so enjoyable as a sport that it's easy to get hooked.

"Indiana loves it and I'm really proud of him."

Agility – in which owners guide their dogs around a course consisting of tunnels, jumps and weave poles – is the UK's fastest growing dog sport.

Calendar

Caroline Kisko, Kennel Club communications director, said: "The International Agility Festival is one of the most prestigious events in the dog sports calendar so Nicola and Indiana should be very proud of their achievement.

"We will look forward to welcoming them to Crufts next year."

Teen recruits take first military steps

FIVE RUGELEY teenagers have taken their first steps towards a military career after joining the Territorial Army.

Matthew Grice, Luke Kirkbride, Ethan Power, Kane Williamson and Craig Gillan, all aged 16, pledged allegiance to Queen and country in front of their family and friends at a ceremony last week.

The quintet will be based at the Army Foundation College in Harrogate from this month, where they will be given military and vocational training.

Luke and Ethan are joining the Royal Artillery, while Matt will be in the Parachute Regiment, Kane the Royal Armoured Cops and Craig the Royal Logistic Corps.

Major Jimmy Lamb, army recruitment officer for Staffordshire, wished the group all the best for their new careers.

"The Army Foundation College provides a great opportunity for young people to train as soldiers, while also allowing them to gain further qualifications and continue with their education," he said. "In addition to gaining basic military training, they will also have the chance to further improve their numeracy and literary skills and earn an apprenticeship.

Important

"I'm delighted that this group of local young people are taking this important first step towards a military career and I wish them all the best for the future."

The group passed English and numeracy tests at an army careers office in Burton-on-Trent in order to join the TA, as well as fitness, teamwork and commitment assessments.

MP joining work party for clean-up at 'Bloody Steps'

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help out with a clean-up of Rugeley's canal-sides.

The Lichfield branch of the Inland Waterways Association has organised two work parties for Friday September 9 and Sunday 11.

The first takes place at the bottom of the 'Bloody Steps', off Wolseley Road, where organisers and helpers including MP Aidan Burley plan to paint the aqueduct railings, clear litter and trim trees. Two days later the meeting point is Leathermill Lane Bridge for more painting, scrubbing and litter-picking, as well as filling in a washhole on the towpath.

Both clean-ups start at 9.45am. No experience is necessary.

For details, email margaret.beards more@waterways.org.uk or call 07581 794111.

Hotel hosts a bridal fair

A BRIDAL fair is being held at a Rugeley hotel later this month.

The event is being staged at the Cedar Tree Hotel in main Road on Wednesday, September 14 from 6pm to 9pm.

A range of local wedding businesses will be exhibiting at the free fair organised by Staffordshire Bridal Fayres.

MP to meet quarry owners over racing

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson is trying to organise a meeting with the owners of a controversial quarry site after the land was churned up during a two-day off road biking event.

Mr Williamson says he was shocked at the state of Shoal Hill Quarry after surveying the site which was used by bikers from across the country during a weekend meet. The bike event was put on by World of Riding Events.

The Conservative MP now wants to meet with landowner Inglewood Investments.

He said: "It was shocking to see how much land had been churned up and having spoken to local residents, it is clear that what they want to see is good dialogue with those responsible.

"Inglewood Investments has to work with local people and show some consideration, which frankly so far hasn't happened, and I hope there will be a positive response."

"A lot of people have been incredibly upset and I think it's important that Inglewood get involved."

Noise

During the meeting on August 13 and 14, some councillors and nearby residents walked around the site to keep a close eye on any damage to trees or wildlife habitats. Others complained they had to stay indoors because of the noise and the dust.

Tom Follows, director of Stafford-based Inglewood Investments, said time would be taken to reflect on the event before any decisions were made about further meets. He has set aside a date in September to hold a meeting with the MP.

He added the event had been hampered by some of the route being sabotaged.

Football game is donated

A CHILDREN'S holiday club received a helping hand when a Cannock supermarket donated a table football game to keep them entertained.

Norton Canes Family Fun Club received the donation from Sainsbury's staff, based at Orbital Retail Park, as well as two police community support officers.

Sainsbury's Cannock store manager Rob Hillman added: "We're delighted to be able to contribute to this fantastic community club.

"We hope it proves to be a real hit with families and we look forward to working with the local community and supporting future events in Cannock over the coming months."

Art on show

A DISPLAY of artwork from Burntwood artists is on show at St Anne's Church until Sunday September 4. The work by the Burntwood Art Group can be seen during church hours.

Taste of success for Bangladeshi cuisine

Jaipur restaurant owner Noor Miah with the award from the Midland Balti Association

STAFF at a Hednesford restaurant are celebrating the taste of success after being given an award from the Balti Association. Noor Miah was handed an award on behalf of his team at Jaipur, in Market Street, Hednesford.

The Balti Association commended the restaurant for its 'authentic' Bangladeshi cuisine. Mr Miah said: "We celebrated winning by holding an award evening at the restaurant in the form of a four-course champagne dinner with live entertainment."

Cannock Chase district councillor Bob Todd, who represents Hednesford, presented the award on behalf of the Balti Association. Mr Miah added: "This award is for having the best Bangladeshi food in the area. As far as we know it is the only restaurant making and preparing their own meat products at the restaurant instead of buying in."

Firm buys out business park

The Octagon Business Park in Bridgtown

A PRIVATELY-owned property company has bought the Octagon Business Park in Cannock in what is believed to be a multi-million pound deal.

Northern Trust is not revealing the price tag on the deal, which adds 15,793 sq ft to its eight million sq ft industrial property portfolio.

Octagon Business Park is a modern multi-let industrial estate, in West Street, Bridgtown, fronting the A34 Walsall Road near to the Orbital Plaza traffic island in Cannock.

The estate comprises six units arranged as a single terrace in addition to Octagon House.

Tom Parkinson, director at Northern Trust, said: "We are pleased to announce the acquisition of Octagon Business Park, Cannock adding to our presence in the Midlands region.

Portfolio

"The estate will be managed by our in-house managing agents, Whittle Jones Midlands which already runs Northern Trust's existing 1.4 million sq ft portfolio in the Midlands."

Individual unit sizes on Octagon Park range from 1,314 sq ft to 2,602 sq ft.

Northern Trust was established in 1962 and is now one of the UK's largest and most successful privately owned property investment, development and land regeneration companies. Its existing property portfolio is in excess of eight million sq ft of industrial/trade and office parks and has more than 5,000 acres of land under ownership or management throughout the UK.

Ta-ra to old self as the weight falls off

A GREAT WYRLEY woman has wowed her family and friends by shedding nearly five stone so she can wear a bikini on her upcoming summer holiday.

Tara Pearce, of Love Lane, returned from a holiday last year and vowed to get in to shape for her next break. In October the 25-year-old is being whisked away to Turkey with her boyfriend of seven years Wayne Bettan, also 25.

"I just had enough of being fat, I came back from holiday and thought it would be nice to wear a bikini," said Tara.

Delighted

Tara has dropped from 15st 6lbs to 11 stone in just 10 months by attending Slimming World classes. Her partner Wayne, who works alongside Tara at the Hollybush Garden Centre and Aquaria, in nearby Shareshill, has been delighted with the results.

"He's been really impressed and says it is like having a new girlfriend," added garden centre supervisor Tara who gave up snacking to get slim.

Egg and White plus lots of yolks

Comedian George Egg

THERE will be a scramble for places as a cracking night of comedy is expected in Lichfield next week.

Prop master George Egg is the headline act for the Magners funhouse Comedy night at the George Hotel, in Bird Street, on Thursday, September 8.

Egg has gained a reputation for being an innovative comedian, with his briefcase of imaginative and ridiculous props. He has been hailed as a Tommy Cooper for the 21st century, with The Guardian describing him as "a hugely entertaining variety turn".

Egg has been a professional stand-up comedian, actor and writer for the past 10 years, touring his solo show in Germany, Holland, Belgium and France.

Talent

Brummie comedian Andy White, who escaped life in a call centre to become a stand-up, will kick off the Magners Funhouse Comedy night.

Crowd-pleaser White is said to ooze talent and combines funny voices with his mad afro in an all-action performance. Newcomer Chris Norton will support White and Egg with likeable Welshman Matt Price as compere.

Tickets are £12 in advance. Doors open at 7.30pm for an 8.15pm start.

Drum clinic at bar is led by respected musicians

Two respected drummers are hosting a special event at Cannock's Bar Sport later this month.

Ash Soan and Neal Wilkinson will show off their skills at the Yamaha and Arcade Music Pocket Club Tour Drum Clinic on September 12 at the High Green bar's Premier Suite.

Ash has played with artists such as Adele, Robbie Williams, and Cee-Lo Green, while Neal has shared the stage with the likes of Van Morrison, Ray Charles and Paul McCartney.

Ritchie Sieradzki, one of the organisers, said: "Tickets are selling fast and ticket wristbands are available now for £5. Doors will open at 7pm, and there will be a bar and a raffle."

Visit www.arcademusic.co.uk for more details.

For tickets call 01543 503460.

Return date

BEATLES, Blues, and Blue Violins make a return visit to the Lichfield Garrick next Friday (September 9) from 7.30pm. Tickets cost from £10 on 01543 412121 or at www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Amelia Buffey, aged six, with sisters Charlotte and Phillippa Pearson, who have set up the Chase Stage Academy

Sisters set stage for performing academy

ASPIRING young singers and dancers will be seeing double at the launch of a new theatre group.

Twins Charlotte and Phillippa Pearson are behind the new Chase Stage Academy. The 22-year-olds are inspiring youngsters to chase their singing and dancing dreams.

Kicking off on Saturdays in October 2011, the group will be based at Chase Academy in Cannock and is inviting those between the years of six and 18 to come and show their potential.

Charlotte, a classically trained singer who studied at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester, said: "What I want to do is provide a place where quality tuition and dance technique can be given."

Phillippa has performed professionally in the world of theatre for five years and has also performed entertainment for children on Disney Cruise Line ships.

A taster session will take place on September 24 with half-price admission before classes starts.

For information call Charlotte on 07534 288274, email chasestageacademy@gmail.com or visit www.chasestageacademy.co.uk

Soul'd on tribute act

MOTOWN tribute band Soul'd Out perform in Cheslyn Hay this month.

Cheslyn Hay Community & Sports Club, in Station Street, welcomes the14-piece outfit on September 23.

They will cover the classic sounds of The Four Tops, The Temptations, Martha Reeves and Aretha Franklin.

The gig will be at 8pm. Tickets are £6 and can be booked in advance by calling 07773 291444.

First club rock night

A NEW monthly rock night is being launched at a Cannock club tomorrow night (Friday).

It will be the first Friday music night at Bridgtown Social Working Men's Club in Walsall Road, and kicks off at 8pm.

Admission will be £3 and the nights will continue on the first Friday of each month.

At the Tack

THE Tackeroo, in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath, plays host to two top tributes this weekend. Black Eyed Peaz play tomorrow night (Friday) and Saturday sees Essential Journey take the stage. Tickets for both gigs are £6.

2011 – Year of the Bible
DID YOU KNOW

"RESURRECTION" is the only hope for life after death?

Jesus Christ rose from the dead. The Bible says that God will raise from the dead all those who believed on him in their lives. (John ch 11v 25) As God raised Jesus from the dead, so will Jesus' followers be raised. This will happen when Jesus returns to the earth to set up God's Kingdom. The First letter to the Thessalonians ch 4 v 16 says "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first".

You are warmly invited to the following talks which are to aid, help and encourage you to understand the Bible.

Sun 4th Sept 2:45 p.m. The Promises of God to You.
Sun 11th Sept 6:00 p.m. Belief AND then Baptism.
Sun 18th Sept 6:00 p.m. Please see Web Site.
Sun 25th Sept 6:00 p.m. Earth Shattering News for the Future.

All are open to the public to attend
There is no admission charge or collection

OFF THE CUFF – WHEN GENO MET DUANE

Vintage TV, 6.30pm

Geno Washington and The Ram Jam Band had two of the biggest-selling UK albums of the 1960s. Duane Eddy had a string of characteristically 'twangy' hit records in the late 50s and early 60s. Somewhat surprisingly, these award-sweeping giants of 20th century popular music had never met before. We thought we'd bring them together... Join us to see what went down when Hard Clippin', Foot Stompin', Funky Butt Geno crossed paths with Rebel Rouser Duane Eddy at the Gibson Guitar studios in London.

A story of sex, rock 'n' roll and lousy decision making

KILLING BONO (PG)

Based on Neil McCormick's autobiography this tale of fate, sex, drugs, rock 'n' roll and being the worst decision maker in the world is too bizarre not to be true.

This is the story of two Irish brothers Neil and Ivan McCormick, played by Ben Barnes and Robert Sheehan respectively, who miss the chance to be part of the world's biggest band.

Neil makes a decision for Ivan, unbeknown to his brother, when Bono offers to make him part of the burgeoning rock group that eventually goes on to be U2.

After making this cataclysmically stupid decision Neil, with Ivan in tow, sets out to make it in the fickle world of the music industry determined for his own part to be a success and to cover his own tracks so his brother never finds out how he determined his fate.

Nemisis

The brothers and their band struggle while all the time Neil is reminded of his nemesis, Bono et al, growing to be a global phenomenon playing stadiums all over the world, while they struggle to fill local community halls.

As they move to London and become more and more enmeshed in the seedy world of the industry, their journey is further complicated by being bankrolled by a local Dublin murderer, played by Bill Bailey lookalike Ralph Brown, who is keen to see a return on his investment.

Throw into the pot a predatory, homosexual landlord, camped up wonderfully by an obviously ailing Pete Postlethwaite; a music promoter who is here today and gone tomorrow and doesn't even like rock music, and a psychotic henchman who, although not too bright, has a penchant for using guns and you have a surreal journey that exposes the vagaries of life, the bizarre and rollercoaster world of rock 'n' roll and how sometimes fates deals a hand that slaps you right in the face.

Neil McCormick is really a small fish in a sea of sharks and his decision making is the worst since Adolf Hitler's parents decided to buy a bottle of Riesling instead of a condom and even when redemption stares him in the face he still manages to mess things up.

Killing Bono is not a laugh out loud kind of film but it's well worth watching and does have some great one liners such as: "You can't boo me, I went to Eton." .

Killing Bono is out now.

THE PANIC IN NEEDLE PARK (18)

Kitty Winn and Al Pacino star in The Panic in Needle Park

This little known early outing for Al Pacino is a gritty, reality-style film which shows the seedy sub-culture of drugs, prostitution and crime.

The Panic was banned in the UK until recently for its graphic portrayal of drug use some of which, even 40 years on, is still uncomfortable to watch.

Pacino is Bobby a drug user, dealer and hustler who hooks up with Helen played by Kitty Winn. She is drawn into the world of Pacino's charismatic character being introduced to pimps, prostitutes, addicts, pushers and criminals like some bizarre networking exercise.

The Panic is filmed without a music soundtrack in a Ken Loach-style realism and is as seedy and uncompromising as contemporaries such as Midnight Cowboy or Serpico.

Throughout the film Pacino shows the brooding style and acting talent which went on to earn him the part in The Godfather.

This is not your usual Hollywood fare – there are no heroes or villains and no happy endings.

Surviving

This stripped-back look at how this subculture goes about surviving day to day, living hand to mouth and for the next fix, hustling anyone and everyone is just presented as a way of life.

As Helen is exposed to the darker side of Bobby's life which is constantly overshadowed by the local police determined to bust the drugs rings, she is dragged down into her own addiction and prostitution eventually selling out everything she values, even Bobby.

Be warned this is not a feel-good film but it is a stark warning of a whole strata of society which exists but most people choose to ignore until it spills over into their comfort zone.

Extras include, interviews with director Jerry Schatzberg and writer Joan Didion.

The Panic in Needle Park was due for release September 5.

Four-bed home in prime location

The Moorings, in Colwich, near Stafford – on the market for £425,995

THE Moorings, a four-bed home in a sought-after cul-de-sac location in Colwich, is on the market with C Residential for £425,9995.

The entrance hall is approached via a uPVC double-glazed front entrance door with glazed sidescreens, wall light point, decorative dado rail, covered radiator and wooden flooring.

Other features include a guest cloakroom, a lounge, with modern raised gas fire with pebble effect, two wall light points, two radiators, uPVC double-glazed window overlooking the rear garden and double-glazed french doors leading to the P-shaped garden room, which provides additional family space. From here, uPVC double-glazed windows overlook the rear garden, while two uPVC double-glazed french doors provide access to the paved patio areas.

The dining room measures 13'10" by 13' into bay, while the breakfast kitchen is in an L shape and has recently been refitted.

The utility room is accessed off the kitchen and is fitted with a range of base and wall units, wall mounted Baxi micro gas central heating boiler, plumbing and space for washing machine and further appliance space.

Garage

There is a uPVC double-glazed window to the rear with double-glazed door leading to side. In addition a further door leads to the downstairs WC and internal access door to garage.

Bedroom one, which is fitted with a range of wardrobes. It has wooden flooring, coving, radiator and two uVPC double-glazed windows to front aspect. It has en-suite bathroom. The family bathroom comprises low-level w.c, vanity unit with inset hand wash basin and panelled bath.

The property is set back from the road behind a large sweeping driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to the integral double garage, which has electronically operated up and over door, electricity, power points, water tap and glazed windows and pedestrian access doors to side.

The rear garden is a particular feature and is approached via a gated side access.

The current Vendors have landscaped the garden to provide low maintenance with paved patio areas, well stocked and mature borders, cold water tap and raised decked seating area.

MOTORING NEWS AND REVIEWS
CHRONICLE MOTORING

Your essential guide to the world of motoring compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Fresh new look for Exeo

SEAT's executive class Exeo saloon and ST estate range is getting a new look, and some important new engineering upgrades.

The revised Exeo 'face' with new bi-xenon headlights and stunning LED daytime running lights (standard on Sport, optional on SE), will make its public debut in the metal at the forth-coming Frankfurt Motor Show.

The styling enhancements, boosted by smart new alloy wheel designs, further underline the high value Exeo range's premium look.

Upgrades

Upgrades to interior materials – including upgraded leather on the steering wheel and revised upholstery – create a matching premium feel.

Meanwhile, improvements to the high quality SEAT saloon and estate's 2.0 TDI common rail powerplant now see emissions cut to as little as 129 g/km.

Economy is similarly improved, too, with the Exeo saloon now being capable of as much as 57.6 mpg on the EU's combined cycle. The latest upgrades to the Exeo come hard on the heels of the arrival of a new gearbox option earlier this year, with the addition of a smooth, efficient Multitronic auto/sequential manual gearbox further underlining the luxurious SEAT's executive appeal.

The Multitronic 'box – with its CVT-based technology and stepped 'changes' – offers both full auto mode and the option of sequential shifts via the sporty, steering wheel-mounted shift paddles.

Looking to 2012, the Exeo family is in for further upgrades with the addition for the first time of SEAT's effortless Start/Stop technology on an Ecomotive model, which will help deliver even more fuel efficiency.

SEAT is targeting an ambitious CO2 figure of less than 120 g/km for the Start/Stop-equipped Exeo which will, of course, enhance its appeal to both environmentally-conscious private buyers and UK fleet managers who demand such low emissions levels from even their executive models.

The Exeo's eye-catching styling changes, allied to SEAT's ongoing commitment to improving quality while simultaneously cutting its cars' emissions and improving fuel economy, are sure to generate further interest in the range.

It is now the Spanish brand's third best-seller in the UK behind the Ibiza supermini and sporty Leon five-door family hatch.

The upgrades to the Exeo should boost both the emotional and rational appeal of the range.

SEAT UK managing director Peter Wyhinny said: 'The arrival of the Exeo marked SEAT's debut in a new and hard-fought market segment, and the success of the fleet-friendly saloon and estate range is already clear.

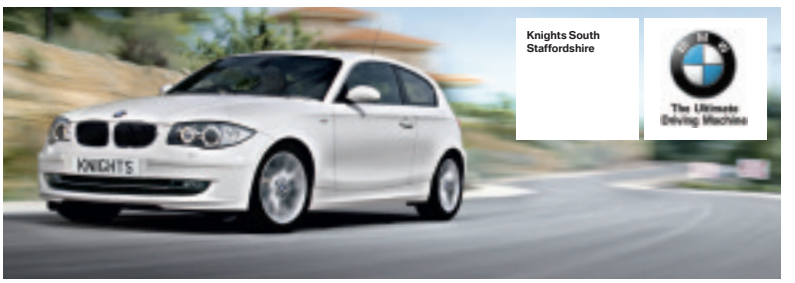
Crowds

"Now, with this great new look and impressive engineering changes I'm sure the Exeo will draw the crowds to both our Frankfurt show stand and, in due course, our UK dealerships."

The Exeo range is offered with a choice of three frugal turbodiesels or one potent turbocharged petrol engine.

Cars in the range ares priced from £19,285.

Full details on the entire SEAT range, together with a sophisticated car configurator, are available at www.seat.co.uk



Why drive an everyday car when you could drive a BMW every day?

Exchanging your higher rate mobility allowance for a BMW enables you to enjoy worry-free motoring for 3 years.

All you have to do is choose a BMW model available on the Motability Car Scheme and we will do the rest.

Simply make an advance payment and your higher rate mobility allowance will cover the monthly rentals, with no additional costs.

- Insurance and road tax included.
- All servicing, maintenance, windscreen and tyre replacement costs built in.
- Accident and breakdown cover.
- A new BMW every three years.

Motability
The leading car scheme for disabled people

Even better, your BMW now features BMW EfficientDynamics technologies that improve performance while reducing fuel consumption and emissions.

To find out more, please contact our Motability Sales Specialist on 01785 246999.

OFFICIAL FUEL ECONOMY FIGURES FOR THE BMW RANGE: EXTRA URBAN 26.2–78.5MPG (10.8-3.9L/100KM). URBAN 12.8-56.5MPG (22.0-5.3L/100KM). COMBINED 19.2-68.9MPG (14.7-4.4L/100KM). CO2 EMISSIONS 352-109G/KM.

The Motability Car Scheme is for those individuals receiving the higher rate mobility component of the Disability Living Allowance or the War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement. Subsequent rental payments are made by diversion of this component of the living allowance. Additional charges may be payable, including excess mileage, damage excess and early termination charges. BMW EfficientDynamics reduces emissions without compromising performance developments and is standard across the model range.

Vauxhall has that electric feeling

By Matt Joy

ELECTRIC cars were a hot topic before a certain programme got involved.

Now every media outlet has something to say on the pros and cons of electric versus combustion.

Leaving aside for the moment that this is like comparing nuclear and wind energy, the fact is electric cars will play a significant part in the motoring landscape for the next decade and beyond.

Should you, the consumer, feel slightly bewildered by all this technology, you may find solace in a new car from Vauxhall. It's called the Ampera, and if the name hadn't given it away, it uses electric power, except there's a bit more to it.

Alongside the battery pack and the electric motors there is a small and efficient petrol engine. Rather than running in tandem with the battery pack like a hybrid does, the Ampera's unit is used solely as a generator to charge the batteries.

If it sounds complicated, it is, but all you need to know is that it overcomes one of the problems with electric cars: range.

Before you even get to that, the Ampera should have your eyes out on stalks with its striking design.

Attractive

Whoever decreed electric cars must have no other appeal than the fact that they are emission-free was wrong: the Ampera is a modern and highly attractive piece of car design.

It looks like a prediction of the car of the future, and in many ways that's what it could be. It's a four-door saloon but it has compact dimensions, an imposing nose and high tail, much of which is dictated by aerodynamics but a side effect could be lust. This is a car you could buy on looks alone.

Climb in and there's no let up in the freedom given to the designers. The dashboard is one virtually smooth panel with touch-sensitive buttons and a blank display where instruments would normally lie.

There are smart materials, body-coloured panels on the doors and seats, and although the four-seat layout reduces capacity, it does add to the premium feel.

Start it up and there is silence, and the display illuminates to give you comprehensive information.

Getting under way just requires you to move the gear selector into D and squeeze the accelerator. Do so and the effortless, silent acceleration that makes electric cars so appealing is right there: just a faint hum from the tyres to remind you there are mechanics at work.

Also rubbishing the theory that electric cars must be dull to drive, the Ampera steers keenly, has a very supple ride and although it leans a little more through corners as a result, is happy to zap through bends should you feel the need. It's not quite a hot electric hatch, nor is it far from that ideal.

Like many of its electric contemporaries, the Ampera offers a range of approximately 50 miles on electric power, although the determined can get further especially if you switch the driving mode to its maximum eco setting.

When the batteries are depleted, the petrol engine kicks in. Rather than power the wheels in a conventional sense, it provides electricity to the electric motors as well as maintaining charge in the battery.

Efficiency

By running the engine at peak efficiency rather than to the demands of the accelerator, it keeps emissions to a bare minimum. The upshot is that the Ampera can manage more than 300 miles total range.

It has a few more tricks up its sleeve. If you happen to be driving to a city with an electric car infrastructure, you can push a button and save the full battery until you get there. Or on a tough upward climb, you can change to a similar mode to maintain battery charge until you are past the worst.

All this makes the Ampera something of a hybrid in the true sense of the word: somewhere between a pure electric car and an efficient combustion-engined one.

There are a few quibbles, of course – the push-button dash could be more responsive and you need to spend time getting used to how it all works.

Then there's the price. As the Ampera qualifies for the Government's £5,000 grant, a new one will cost you £28,995 when the order book opens in the UK later this year, putting it up against premium small saloons.

For the moment, the Ampera really does offer something very different. Not only do you get the eco-silence of pure electric running but without the headache of a limited range, it is also stylish, desirable and practical, proving that to be green doesn't demand compromise.

The dashboard is smooth and the instrument panel is replaced by a display

Car to give confidence ~ Chevrolet Orlandois acclaimed for its protection

Safety rating of five stars

MOST Chevrolet customers know their cars are a safe purchase. The company has one of the safest ranges on the market with three models attaining maximum five-star rating in Euro NCAP crash tests.

Following the Cruze, which in 2009 achieved the best passenger protection rating in the industry benchmark crash tests, the Chevrolet Aveo and Orlando MPV have been awarded five Euro NCAP stars.

The Chevrolet Aveo hatchback, which goes on sale this autumn, secured 85 out of 100 points, placing it among the best in its segment. The Orlando scored 80 points.

In the crucial areas of adult and child occupant protection, the Aveo achieved 95 and 87 percent. The Orlando scored 95 percent in adult protection and 79 percent in child protection.

"Both the Orlando and the new Aveo hatchback provide formidable levels of safety," said Wayne Brannon, president and managing director, Chevrolet Europe. "Safety matters a lot to us and we are delighted that these two vehicles have earned the top European rating."

Stability

The Aveo has six standard airbags connected to sensing and diagnostic modules in the middle of the car, and a child-seat latching system.

Safety systems include electronic stability control, traction control, a four-channel anti-lock braking system with brake assist, and electronic brake force distribution. Hill-start assist and cruise control with speed limiter function are among the Aveo's standard features.

The Orlando has six airbags and ISOFIX elements for child seats. The crash sensor technology used in the MPV ensures the doors will automatically unlock on impact. Anti-lock braking, traction control, electronic brake force distribution, brake assist and electronic stability control are standard.

Fiat launches Doblo Work Up dropside van

FIAT PROFESSIONAL'S award-winning Doblò Cargo van range has been broadened with a version never before introduced by a large volume manufacturer.

Called the Doblò Work Up, it's a 'dropside' vehicle with compact external dimensions allowing easy use in urban areas. The external dimensions are not, however, a limit to its performance.

The load box is 2.30 m long and 1.82 m wide, with 4 m2 of loading area which can accommodate a payload of up to 1,000kg. Additionally, the multi-link suspension permits a rear axle load up to 1,450kg.

The load box is made of high-resistance steel with a floor created from anti-slip multilayer wood and sides in aluminium alloy. Under the floor is a compartment for stowing long tools, safely protected from the elements.

On each side of the vehicle there is a small, practical step that allows the user to get into the load area. This structure has a ladder rack/door poles, load restraining hooks, and a sturdy protective grille on the rear window of the cab.

The new Doblò Work Up is powered by a choice of two Euro 5 turbodiesel engines: 1.3 MultiJet 90 bhp and 1.6 MultiJet 105 bhp. Both engines are characterised by excellent performance, low noise, low operating costs (fuel consumption and maintenance), reliability and environmental friendliness. Both feature the fuel-saving Start&Stop system and diesel particulate filter.

In terms of security, the new Doblò Work Up is unrivalled. To ensure optimum dynamic performance, comfort and active safety, the vehicle has been equipped with innovative mechanical solutions, among them multi-link rear suspension, stability control, and ABS anti-lock brakes with EBD electronic brakeforce distribution.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Scholars are denied by Matt finish

CHASETOWN 1 CHORLEY 1

CHASETOWN came close to ending Chorley's unbeaten start to the Evo-Stik Premier season but a last-minute equaliser by former Blackburn striker Matt Jensen rescued a point for the visitors.

After a fairly slow start the league leaders won a corner in the sixth minute which was headed clear by Matty Cohen, while Gary Birch had the first chance for the Scholars but his shot from a through-ball by Malachi Farquharson was beaten by a diving Russ Saunders in the Magpies goal. Steve Foster blasted high over the bar for Chorley on 23 minutes, while Chasetown's next chance saw Mark Branch's free kick from a tight angle on the right punched clear. Chorley had a great chance to take the lead on 28 minutes but Andy Russell headed Foster's dangerous cross over the bar, but five minutes later Birch found space on the edge of the 18-yard box and hammered a powerful shot past Saunders to put the home side ahead.

CHASETOWN FC

Farquharson thought he had made it two on 39 minutes after his low shot beat the Magpies defence but the flag was up for offside.

Chorley had the first chance of the second half with Steve Flitcroft curling a shot over Ryan Price's bar while Wayne Maden headed wide under pressure from Birch.

A foul by Maden on Lee Parsons on the edge of the 18-yard box on 55 minutes earned a dangerous-looking free kick for Chasetown but Saunders plucked Jake Sedgemore's kick out of the air.

Substitute Simon Whaley sent the visitors' next effort wide with Russell then intercepting Birch in space on the left. Chorley looked more determined as the half progressed with Matty Cohen heading out a Tom Ince corner on 67 minutes, but it was the Scholars who would go close next with Alex Melbourne firing left-footed over the bar.

Melbourne was having a fine Scholars debut and he and Sedgemore teamed up to set up Ben Jevons but he mis-kicked his shot wide, while an attempted clearance by Saunders under pressure from Gary Hay saw the ball find Farquharson but he fired over the bar.

Hay and Farquharson made much of the running in the closing stages, the former denied by the offside flag as he and Mark Branch broke through on 80 minutes.

Just as it looked as though Chorley's unbeaten run was about to be ended, Matt Jansen popped up in stoppage time to head Ince's free kick in at the far post and steal a point.

Best start since '78 is halted

KENDAL TOWN 2
HEDNESFORD TOWN 1

HEDNESFORD Town's best start to a season since 1978 came to an end as Kendal captain Marc Joseph headed a late winner.

Both sides sat in the top echelons of the league table at the start of the day and neither gave an inch in a fiercely competitive match.

It took until 74 minutes for the first goal to arrive as Mark Jackson caught Pitmen skipper Darren Campion square and he skipped beyond the challenge to cross crossed for Danny Williams to nod the ball beyond Dan Crane.

Jamey Osbourn, fresh from a late winner against Chester equalised with his first touch six minutes from time as his shot bobbled past Dootson.

But the Pitmen's joy was short-lived as on the stroke of 90 minutes, a curled free kick by Kieran Walmsley found Joseph free to power his header past Crane.

Robinson number one in Pitmen comeback

HEDNESFORD TOWN 5 STAFFORD RANGERS 4

IN the most astonishing and dramatic game ever likely to be witnessed at Keys Park Hednesford Town ended their five decade wait for a victory over their local rivals Stafford Ranger.

A hat trick by Marvin Robinson capped an unbelievable comeback in front of 1,086 fans.

The Pitmen scored three goals in the last 12 minutes to resurrect a game which saw them trail at 3-0 and 4-2. In a nightmare start, Rob Smith's team found themselves 3-0 down inside the opening 20 minutes through Sean Kinsella, Kevin Street and Liam Shotton. Shell-shocked Hednesford fought back and on the stroke of half-time Robinson netted.

Players celebrate the dramatic late winner

HEDNESFORD TOWN

New Hednesford signing Bohan Dixon was introduced into the fray along with Phil Clarke on 62 minutes and the substitutions changed the game.

Ryan Dicker handled in the area to present Clements with a golden opportunity to reduce the arrears from the spot on 78 minutes but Dan Crane uncharacteristically nodded off and gifted Stafford a fourth goal through Chris Budrys.

What followed will go down in Hednesford folklore forever as Robinson scored his second and Danny Quinn scored a fairy-tale equaliser on 90 minutes before Robinson scissor-kicked the winner.

Lucan lords it over former employees

Ben Jevons goes up for a header against Rushall

RUSHALL OLYMPIC 1 CHASETOWN 0

CHASETOWN'S unbeaten Evo-Stik Premier League run came to an end on Bank Holiday Monday with a 1-0 defeat at local rivals Rushall Olympic.

In a fast-paced start to the afternoon Matt Lewis had the opening chance for the hosts as he headed over, while Alex Steadman had the first shot for the Scholars but former Scholar Lucan Spittle sliced clear.

Both sides had early penalty appeals turned down, Chasetown for a handball and Rushall when another former Scholar Chris Morris came under fire from Chris Slater.

The visitors showed some good pace and were able to find several breakthroughs, Malachi Farquharson flagged for offside and Mark Branch seeing his shot sent behind for a corner which was headed out by Ben Jevons.

Just before the hour mark, home skipper Grant Beckett saw his free kick sent wide by Christian Dacres, while Steadman was alert to clear Sean Platt's cross following a corner. But on 69 minutes the deadlock was broken when Beckett's free kick was cleared and Platt's follow-up corner was headed down into the net by Spittle to put the Pics ahead.

Chase could have equalised two minutes later when Jevons headed a John Branch cross goalwards but keeper Gemmell was able to push the ball round the post, and he was on hand once again to save from Lee Parsons moments later.

Chasetown visit Bradford Park Avenue on Saturday (3pm).

Pedro heads late winner

MICKLEOVER SPORTS 1 HEDNESFORD TOWN 2

A PEDRO Monteiro winner seven minutes from time secured Hednesford Town's fourth win in a row following a gallant second half fightback against Mickleover Sports.

The Pitmen always looked a threat at set-pieces, especially as Rob Smith's side piled on the pressure after the break.

Following Chris Shaw's flicked header from a Darren Campion free-kick on 56 minutes which levelled the scores, the away side looked almost destined to continue their superb start to the season.

An energetic Mickleover were the better side in the opening period as they pressurised Hednesford's midfield trio.

The opening goal came when Karl Ashton was left in too much space 12 yards out following slick build up play and the Mickleover striker swept his shot past Dan Crane on 35 minutes. Both sides had threatened before the goal with Danny Quinn seeing a shot smothered by Ali Baccherini for Hednesford and Crane blocking a shot from Ashton.

The home side came close to adding to their lead on the stroke of half time as an attractive passing move set up Kieran O'Connell who should have hit the target from 12 yards out.

The Pitmen showed real purpose and character in chasing the winner and Monteiro headed inches wide before the pressure told and the ex-West Bromwich Albion defender scrambled in the winner from a deep Campion corner.

Crane still had to be alert as a stoppage time scramble almost saw Mickleover grab a late equaliser.

New players wanted

WYRLEY Juniors are holding goalkeeping coaching sessions for players of any age, ability and for any team.

The sessions are being held at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre, in Saredon Road, on Wednesday nights from 6 to 7pm at a cost of £4 per session.

Sessions include, distribution, handling, and allowing keepers to develop their technical ability and understanding.

Both coaches hold their Level 2 goalkeeper qualifications, one coach as a level 2 outfield badge and one is qualified to UEFA B standard.

For more details, call Shaun on 079171 91262 or Keith or 07836 202764

Wyrley Juniors Cougars u-16s are looking to strengthen their squad for this season, we currently train at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre at 7pm on Mondays.

The coach is fully qualified to UEFA B licence standard including all relevant qualifications. Any interested Year 11s should call Shaun for more information on 07917191262

Burntwood Dragons Reds u-12s are looking for new players in school Year 7 to join a team with a friendly fun atmosphere, promoting development.

Call manager Mark Turner on 07768 727675.

Wilding at the double

SHENSTONE LADIES

SHENSTONE LADIES 3 PELSALL VILLA 1 – STAFFORDSHIRE WOMANS LEAGUE (FRIENDLY)

In the first of two friendlies between these sides Shenstone came out on top against last season's league champions.

Starting strongly Shenstone gained a 2-0 half time lead with two well taken goals from the in-form Sophie Wilding,with only some great goalkeeping from the Pelsall keeper keeping the scoreline down.

The second half saw a more even game and Dee Rose-Laing capped a great performance netting Shenstone's third.

Pelsall were always threatening and were rewarded with a well worked goal down the left ending in a chip over the keeper in to the far right corner.

Comfortable for Hayes

HEATH HAYES 4 BRIDGNORTH TOWN 0

HEATH Hayes recorded a comfortable Bank Holiday victory over a Bridgnorth side who played the last hour with only 10 men.

The home side dominated the early play but the visiting defence held firm. Things changed dramatically on the half hour, however as Chris Deakin, playing as central striker, put Ben Haseley through.

Town skipper, Jason Pike bought him down and was duly sent off and Deakin beat keeper Chris Cook with ease from the resulting spot kick.

Deakin doubled the score finishing off a fine move from the home side and Haseley then got the third in rather bizarre fashion.

Town were harshly penalised for an alleged back pass and Haseley poked home Deakin's quickly taken free-kick.

To their credit Town rallied and for a time looked the better side. After 75 minutes the game took another dramatic twist when Hayes central defender Ben Massey was dismissed for a foul on Ash Jones.

Town, sensing a way back, threw everything into attack but the home defence held firm and Sean Daley fired home from 18 yards after superb work from Haseley to make the game safe.

HEATH HAYES FC

TIPTON TOWN 1 HEATH HAYES 1

An injury time equaliser from skipper Ben Haseley earned Heath Hayes a deserved share of the spoils in this Midlands Alliance fixture.

It was in the main a poor quality game with neither side able to put together any decent moves and play was constantly interrupted by a whistle happy referee who allowed no physical contact whatsoever.

It took until the 80th minute before there was a worthwhile effort on goal and Andrew Davis was unlucky not to put Hayes in front when after beating three defenders his shot struck the bar and was scrambled clear.

With just five minutes remaining it looked as if Town had snatched the winner when James Cooper ran through and fired into the corner but deep into injury time Haseley broke clear and chipped the ball over the advancing Wes Cox to restore parity.

Club strives for success as new campaign looms

CANNOCK Hockey Club welcome in another new season in the coming weeks as they continue to strive for success on all competitive fronts.

Having been in the National League Premier Division since its formation, the club continues to be one of the leading clubs not only in its area but in the whole country.

Cannock is one of the few clubs in the country and the only proud club in the Midlands to have both mens and ladies 1st team in the National League Premier Division, providing the best environment for young and upcoming talent to develop.

The new season returns this weekend when the Ladies section hosts a club day on Saturday September 3 at Chase Park All new, old and present members can come along to enjoy a funday of playing hockey and anyone interesting in joining the club is free to come along. The mens section will host their club day the following Saturday, September 10.

Cannock Mens 1st Team are well into their preparations for the new National League season after 10-0, 4-0 and 4-1 victories over Burton, Sheffield and Peterborough respectively. The new season begins on Sunday September 18 when they visit Hampstead & Westminster.

CANNOCK HOCKEY

Coach Andy Mitchell will again look to put a squad together that is cable of playing in the country's highest division.

Cannock's second team will look to keep hold of the title that they have won the last two years, while the third and fourth teams will look to go one better after both finishing runners-up last season.

The men run seven teams competing within the Midlands League along with a VETS fathom team and two Badgers sides competing in friendly leagues involving only a couple of adults, giving the children the best possible introduction to competitive hockey.

New to this season, Cannock HC will also be putting extra effort into its junior section with a new structure put into place.

Both the club's u18 and u-16 age groups will train on a Tuesday night for an extended period, with a proper coaching team put in place.

Any young player interested in joining Cannock should contact new Youth chairman Ian Morris on 07828 265414, 07500 032409 or email: ian.morris71@google-mail.com

The new season is also a big year for Cannock Ladies as they look to again maintain their place the countries top division under new coach Chris Roberts.

The ladies run six teams across the Staffordshire leagues and also run one Badger side helping juniors develop into ladies hockey.

Any new players, umpires, volunteers that are interested in joining to the clubs men's section should contact club captain Vic DeCosta on 07711 744830 and for the ladies section their club captain, Sarah Martin 07960 710966 for more details, or visit www.cannockhockey.org for more information.

Fisherman hooked on landing big blue shark

ANGLING by VERNON LEADBETTER – sponsored by Archline Angling

THE holiday season has all but passed and moving into September it is now time to be out on the bank as the fish start to feed heavily before the colder months arrive.

The weed beds are dying back and the natural larder is getting scarcer so your bait has more chance of being eaten! The Blackfords AC waters have continued to fish well all summer, with plenty of carp being caught at Calf Heath and a couple more 20lbers from Kingswood.

Last week, I managed to get out for a day's shark fishing off the Welsh coast and what a day it was. We boated a total of 19 sharks, all blue sharks with the exception of one Porbeagle. Several were in the 85 to 120 lb bracket and with sport so hectic I decided to get the fly rod out and hooked three ,the biggest a 101 lb blue shark. If you want to see what it's like doing battle with these incredible fish go to www.archlineangling.co.uk to view it! You may notice we have now included a QR code so you can scan it with your smart phone and it will take you to our site.

The game anglers have been having some good sport on the local waters with many reporting success using small dry flies.

Rewarded

The trout will certainly be feeding on fish fry soon and its worth having a few perch and roach fry patterns in your fly collection. Sport on the rivers has been patchy but those anglers persevering with the low and clear water conditions have been rewarded with some nice fish, chub over 5lbs, bream over 6lbs and even the odd carp have all been reported from the River Trent between Stafford and Yoxall. The River Dove continues to produce big barbel as is the Warwickshire Avon.

Fishery owners, if you would like a mention , please contact us and if you have an up to date "fishy story" to report contact us and we will attempt to include it for you.

If you have any interesting catches to report please contact Vernon at Archline Angling on 01922 411205, or call into the store or email fish@archlineangling.co.uk

Home comforts with no surprises

BOWLS

THERE were no major surprises in the Summit Garage Premier Bowls League with all the home sides recording comfortable victories.

The closest game came at Moseley CC where St Georges pushed the home side to seven shots. Leaders M&B Cheslyn Hay A slipped to a 37-shot defeat at Tanworth in Arden.

New boy Reed races through for debut try

RUGELEY RUGBY

RUGELEY 28 WARLEY 17

RUGELEY welcomed Warley RFC to Hagley fields in a game of four quarters.

The home team began in formidable form looking like all the training throughout the summer had paid off, Mathew Williscroft bagging a quartet of tries in the first quarter all converted by Jamie Simmons, bringing a healthy 21-0 lead.

In the second quarter the home team seemed to relax and Warley took full advantage, returning with a brace of tries and subsequent conversions to close the gap on 21-14.

Once again in the third and fourth quarters Rugeley captain Williscroft brought the game under control.

New boy Scott Reed played a blinder in the third quarter by creating a dummy that fooled the opposition so much so he was able to run a good 35metres to score his debut. Once again the try was converted.

The home side continued to dominate the game despite allowing Warley to score a penalty bringing their score to 17 points.

This weekend is the Owen Cup and Rugeley are at home to Cannock.

Training is on Tuesday and Thursday evening all Players are required to attend.

See the Rugeley Rugby Club Facebook site for further details.

All players meet at the Vine for 12.30pm on Saturday September 3.

DK canter to an easy victory

LICHFIELD RUGBY CLUB

DUDLEY KINGSWINFORD 62 LICHFIELD 12

A ONE-SIDED contest at Heathbrook saw Dudley-Kingswinford kick off their pre-season campaign in style against Lichfield.

The visitors had already played three friendly games, beating Ilkeston and losing narrowly to Derby and Newport, but the 25-man DK squad proved too strong as they ran home 10 tries in an impressive attacking display.

DK, last year's Midland One West champions, began the game in business-like fashion and took the lead on six minutes when Matt Farrington cruised in for an unconverted try.

A DK player evades a Lichfield tackle

Ten minutes later a tremendous Pete Knight defence-splitting pass from the base of a scrum set up a brisk move which culminated in Gareth Bown making it 10-0.

DK's inventiveness was causing all sorts of problems for Lichfield and by half time it was 29-0, with Ollie Shakespeare, Jon Tideswell and Knight all scoring tries.

Jordan Brookes continued the scoring six minutes into the second half, a try which was converted by Bown, before Tideswell added his second and DK's seventh try for a 43-0 lead.

On the hour a fine break led to Bown pouncing for his second try of the day.

Superb support play from both forwards and backs culminated in impressive young prop Danny Richards dashing in from 20 metres for try number nine.

DK dazzled the appreciative crowd once more with 12 minutes to go when Bown completed their scoring for the afternoon from a John Higgins through-chip.

Lichfield, who had battled hard throughout, were rewarded with a couple of late tries but it wasn't enough to dampen DK's day as they warmed up for the new National League Three Midlands.

Club is looking to attract new faces

WITH the Rugby World Cup about to kick off in New Zealand, the club's junior teams begin training this Sunday (September 4) at 11am.

Rugeley will be running an under-15s and an under-12s team this year but will look to setup other age groups as the season progresses.

Last season saw Rugeley's under 14s triumph win their league becoming the first Rugeley junior team to win a championship. The season was capped by a trip to Twickenham where the players met Rugby World Cup winners Josh Lewsey and Jason Robinson.

However, under-15s coach Martin de Ridder is keen to capitalise on last year's success and recruit some new players and volunteers"

"We are hoping the Rugby World Cup will give the sport a higher profile and allow us to get more of the young people of Rugeley playing the sport," he said.

"I would like to invite anybody who may be thinking about playing down to our first training session this weekend."

Rugeley are also looking to recruit young footballers who aren't getting enough time on the pitch, Martin said

"One of the best things about rugby is that no matter how big, small, tall or short you are we have a position for you to play. Our match fees are cheap at £1 per match and we ensure our players respect their opponents and the referee."

Players and parents are asked to attend StAugustine's field behind St Augustine's field from 11am on Sunday. Further details are available from Martin de Ridder on 07889088558 or on the club's website, which is: www.pitchero.com/clubs/rugeley

INSIDE: Pitmen get the better of rivals in nine-goal Bank Holiday thriller

WIN tickets to BAMMA at the NIA

Europe's largest and most prominent Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) promotion, The British Association of Mixed Martial Arts (BAMMA), has announced that they have introduced their first ever British title with a Middleweight contest between top contenders, Jack Marshman and Carl Noon, and you and a guest could be at the event at Birmingham's NIA on September 10.

As well as having a World title in each division, now the organization will put the British title in to the mix at this special event.

Unlike the World title bouts that are fought for over five, five minute rounds, British title fights will consist of three, five minute rounds, but adopt exactly the same unified rules as all other bouts.

Liam Fisher at BAMMA stated, "The introduction of a British title allows us to develop the ever growing pool of talent in this country.

"Now we can give up-and-coming fighters a legitimate champion status to aspire to before they reach the level of fighting on a World stage.

GoDaddy.com presents BAMMA 7 in association with Lonsdale and PKR.com on Saturday September 10 at The National Indoor Arena, Birmingham, UK

Tickets are available from www.bamma.com and www.theticketfactory.com

BAMMA 7

HOW TO ENTER

To enter the competition, simply answer the following question:

How many rounds are there in a British title fight?

a. 3 rounds
b. 4 rounds
c. 5 rounds

Post your answer to BAMMA COMPETITION, The Chronicle, 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton WV1 1ES. The closing date for entries is Monday, September 5.

The winners will be picked at random and notified by telephone.

Terms and conditions: 1. Only one entry per person. 2. Tickets cannot be exchanged for cash. 3. Entry must also contain the contact name, address and phone number. 4. The editor's decision is final.

Newcomers enjoy race of their lives

CYCLING

TWO NEWCOMERS to cycling proved to be naturals when they put in impressive performances in a recent 12-hour national race.

Dave Pemberton and John Cornfield travelled to Whitchurch in Shropshire to compete in the Road Time Trials Council (RTTC) 12-Hour Championship.

They joined Lynne Taylor, a seasoned pro and fellow member of Born to Bike – a club based at Bridgtown Cycles in Cannock. She took the ladies championship medal with a distance of 252.47 miles, at an average speed of 21mph.

Dave and John, both time trial novices, rode the longest race of their lives and clocked 207.64 and 223.62 miles respectively, earning praise from other riders in the process.

Born to Bike's performance yielded a fourth-place finish in the team standings, with a total of 683.73 miles between the trio.

Expertise

Lynne works full time at Bridgtown Cycles on Walkmill Lane with owner and brother Mike, who along with parents Liz and John helped all day at the race.

"Considering that neither John nor Dave had ever ridden much more than 90 miles in one day, let alone raced, their performances were great," said Lynne, who also won the event in 2008.

The pair attributed their results to Lynne's encouragement, expertise and example, which helped them to fast-track their training for this event.

They now hope to ride the Mersey Roads 24 hour time trial on this same course next July.

The winner of the RTTC 12-Hour Championship was Andy Bason, who rode 302.75 miles – an average of 25mph.

Anyone interested in time-trialling or joining the Born to Bike club should drop in at Bridgtown Cycles, based at Unit 7 of Lakeside Plaza.

Alternatively email theshop@btownbikes.com or call 01922 411180.

Countdown is on to 10k

THERE is just over a week to go until the Lichfield 10k road race and 2k fun run.

The biggest field of runners ever assembled in Lichfield will gather for the events on Sunday, September 11.

They will get under way at King Edward VI Leisure Centre with 1,000 participants expected.

The races are organised by Lichfield Running Club and sponsored by Midlands Pest Control and Lichfield Health & Fitness Club.

Goody bags will be supplied and a T-shirt will be given to everyone who completes the fun run.

Water will be provided at the finish and a medal and banana will be given to everyone who completes the fun run.

Both races start at 10.30. Entry desks open at 8.30am and will remain open until either the race limits are reached or 30 minutes before the start.

For entry forms contact Rachel Faulkner on 01543 417733 or visit www.lichfield-running-club.co.uk

PENKRIDGE CRICKET

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (253-4) BEAT CANNOCK & RUGELEY (162) BY 91 RUNS

PENKRIDGE 1st XI's fine form continued and their push towards promotion to the Birmingham League draws ever nearer with another maximum points haul against Cannock & Rugeley.

Batting first again, Penkridge did not have it all their own way, finding themselves struggling at 14-2, but Ronnie Hassan with his fifth century of the campaign and skipper Paul Szewczyk with a fine 66 steadied the ship adding 170 for the third wicket.

Laeq Chishti then blazed his way to 53 not out from just 28 balls allowing Penkridge to declare in the 42nd over on 253-4. In reply, Cannock & Rugeley recovered from 24-3 thanks to Martin Weston (24) and Chris Saunders (26) but their resistance was broken by Laeq Chishti (3-31), and apart from Rhys Morgan with a defiant 38 not out, Penkridge breezed through the C&R tail with Faisal Nadeem (3-26) and Gary Pope (3-29) leading the way with the ball to bowl out the visitors for 162 in the 45th over.

This latest victory keeps Penkridge in pole position, 13 points ahead of close rivals Milford Hall with just two games of the season to go.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (258-5) DREW WITH CANNOCK & RUGELEY (186-3)

The second XI's grip on the Division 1A title tightened as they recorded a winning draw against Cannock & Rugeley, while second placed Milford's game was abandoned.

Batting first, Kev Baker scored a remarkable third successive century, racking up 123, as he shared a 221 run opening stand with Chad Clarke (83).

Richard James added a cameo 25 runs at number five, which resulted in an early declaration on 258-5, with Jock Caan finishing with four Penkridge wickets.

Penkridge then encountered stout resistance in the form of Darren Aston as he hit an unbeaten century in the Cannock & Rugeley reply of 186-3, receiving able support from Ryan Ponder (36) in the process.

The 3rd XI game against Four Oaks Saints was abandoned.

Domino's is a franchised business where almost all stores are owned and operated by independent franchisees. If you would like to review the privacy policy and direct marketing practices of the Domino's Group (and by this we mean Domino's Pizza UK & IRL plc and any of its group companies) please visit www.dominos.co.uk and click on 'Boring Legal Stuff '. Similarly, if you would like to review the privacy policy and direct marketing policies of a Domino's Franchisee please ask your local store for a copy of their privacy policy and/or direct marketing policy.

Please mention offer when ordering. Not valid with any other offers. Not all deals are available online at www.dominos.co.uk. Only one coupon per order. Coupons have no cash value. Coupons cannot be combined or used in multiple orders. All offers are valid at participating stores only & are subject to availability. Offers can be withdrawn without notice. Unless you request otherwise the address details that you provide to the store on making an order will be retained on the store system for use in connection with future orders made by you. 'Coca-Cola', 'Coke', the Dynamic Ribbon device & the 'Coca-Cola' Red Disc icon are registered trade marks of The Coca-Cola Company.
